APOLLO 7 CREW 'HAVING BALL'

Space Center, Houston (AP) —Three excited Apollo 7 astronauts flashed into space Friday, whipped through critical maneuvers and set up housekeeping in the first test of whether America's newest, biggest spaceship has the stamina to carry men to the moon.

"We're having a ball," reported the veteran command pilot, Navy Cmdr. Walter M. Schirra Jr. as he guided Apollo through the first of its 11-day voyage 163 times around the earth.

He took time out for a hot cup of coffee and grabbed a quick lunch with his co-pilots Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and Walter Cunningham, each making his first space trip. "It's a fantastic world up here," one of them exclaimed.

Spacesuits Doffed

At about 5:30 p.m., Mission Control gave them the go-ahead for another full day and they doffed their heavy spacesuits and bubble helmets and donned their light coveralls, breathing the oxygen in the cabin.

They moved freely about the cabin, discovered that their movements did not throw the craft out of position, and used such newfound luxuries as hot and cold running water.

About nine hours into the flight and some 15 hours after their day began, Schirra reported Eisele was "attempting to settle down for a long winter's night." He was to sleep for seven hours, then Schirra and Cunningham were to sleep for a like period while Eisele took the controls.

Most Powerful

The flight, quickly settling down into a routine, began with a wild ride aboard the most powerful rocket man has ever ridden.

Their hearts racing, the trio blasted off from Cape Kennedy, Fla., at 10:03 a.m. CDT with their Saturn 1B rocket pouring out the furious power of more than a million pounds of blazing fuel.

Ten minutes later, they cut off the last of the engines and glided into a nearly perfect orbit. Their egg-shaped path ranged from 140 to 183 miles above the earth, a shade higher than the planned 142 by 176 miles.

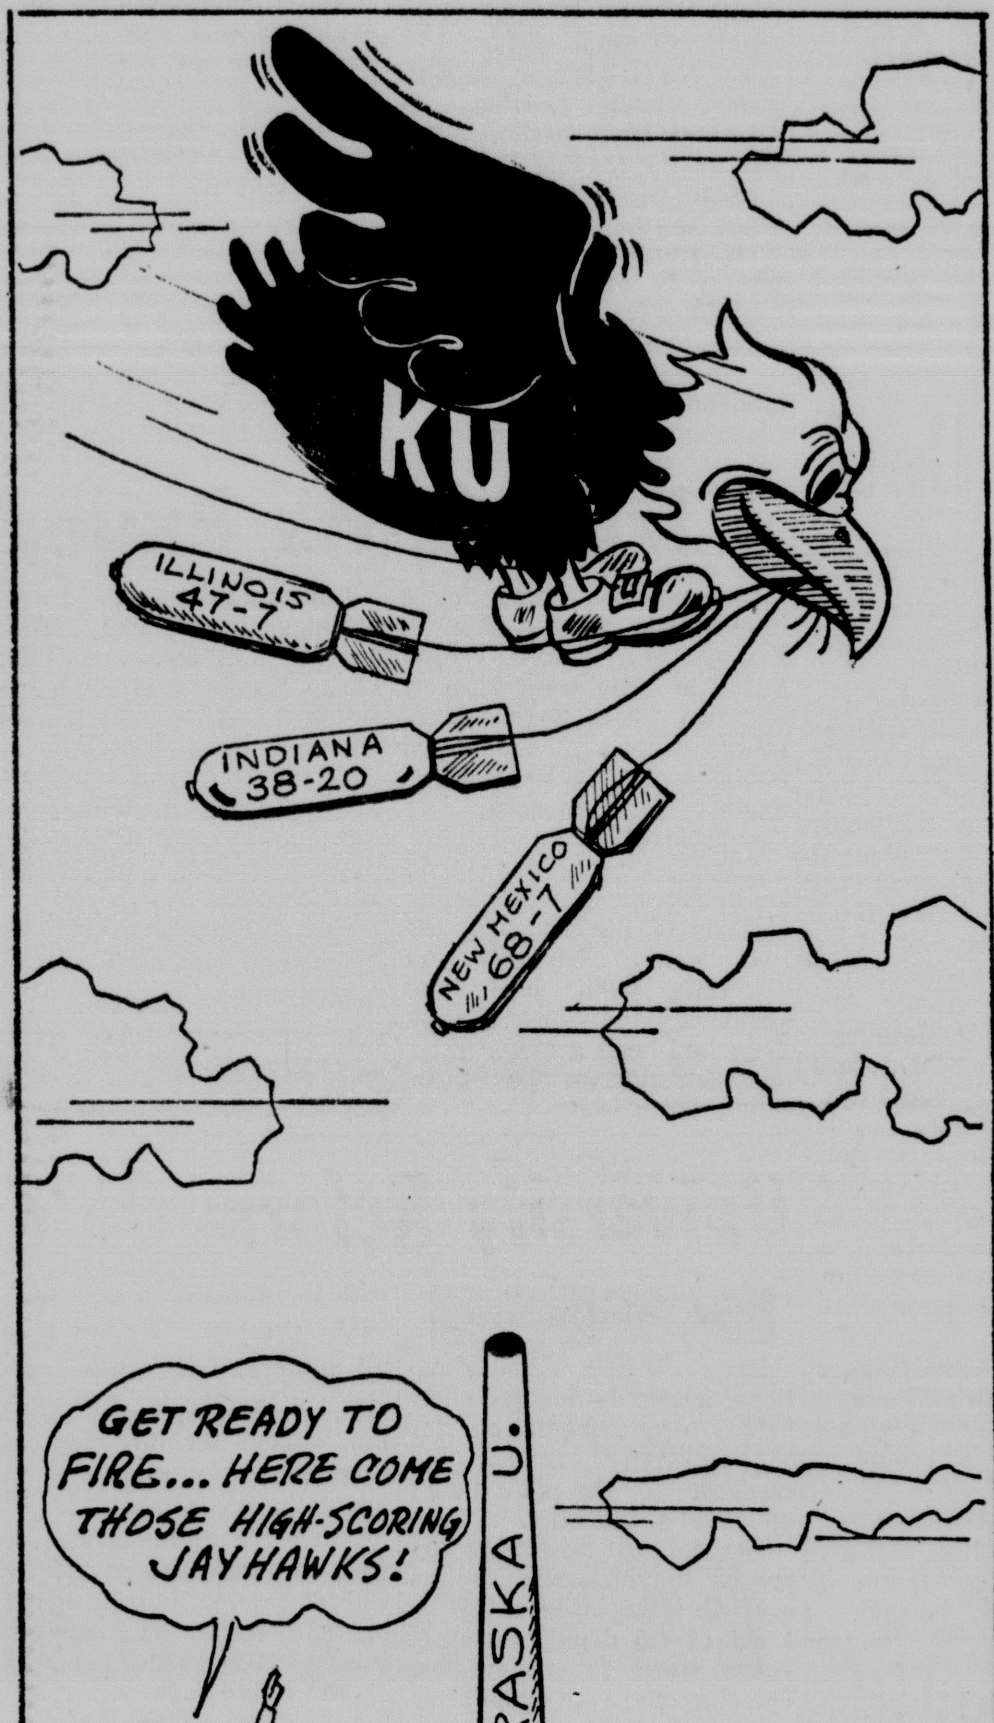
"She's riding nice, a little noisy now . . . riding like a dream," Schirra reported from space on the first leg of the 4.5 million mile trip.

At 12:45 p.m., the crew of the Apollo 7, still connected to the silenced second stage of the Saturn 1B began the crucial dump of surplus fuel in the rocket tanks. This set up the next maneuvers to be completed Saturday when Apollo 7 attempts to track down the spent rocket and rendezvous with it.

That is a vital element in the ultimate moon flight when the small space cab with two men aboard, fresh from the lunar landing, tracks down and docks with the mothership orbiting the moon.

With the mission just three hours old, the crew kicked away from the emptied and now safe second stage of the rocket. Then the Apollo moved about 50 feet ahead, turned and faced the 58-foot rocket.

NU-KU Stakes High



Jayhawk Scoring, Both Defenses Cited

An unbeaten record, a high national ranking, further consideration for a major bowl berth and a big step toward the Big Eight championship are up for grabs Saturday afternoon when Kansas and Nebraska meet at NU's Memorial Stadium.

A record Big Eight sports crowd of nearly 66,000 fans are expected to cram their way in for the 2 p.m. kickoff between the high-scoring Jayhawks and the point-stingy Huskers.

Kansas is scoring a nation-leading 51 points per game while the stingy NU Black Shirts are allowing only eight per game. But perhaps overlooked in the statistical maze is the fact that Kansas is permitting only 11 points per contest.

"Everyone talks about the Kansas offense," says Husker head coach Bob Devaney. "But they also have a fine defense."

Devaney hasn't yet forgotten that Kansas, in scoring a 10-0 victory last season, is the only team to blank him in his tenure at Nebraska.

Prevous statistics may not mean a great deal in this one. The Jayhawks have rolled up their offensive superiority against slightly more vulnerable defenses than the Huskers have faced.

For instance, one of the Husker foes, Wyoming, is tops in the nation in total defense while all three KU foes, Illinois, Indiana and New Mexico, have yielded points just for the asking against all opponents.

Both Unbeaten

Both have unbeaten records at stake, coming in with idential 3-0 records; both are highly rated in the national polls, Kansas sixth with Associated Press and fourth with United Press International, Nebraska sixth with UPI and ninth with AP; both are prime bowl material at this point, Nebraska because of the opposition it has whipped, Kansas because of its high-scoring potential; and both need the win to make a serious bid for the Big Eight title.

Bowl officials from the Orange, Sugar and Liberty bowls will be among the viewers. It will be the second look for the Sugar Bowl at Kansas and Devaney wryly observes that he figures the bowl people are here to look at the Jayhawks.

"They like those high-scoring teams," he quips.

That is one thing the Huskers must do — stop the Jayhawks' high-powered offense that is led by scatback Donnie Shanklin and quarterback Bobby Douglas.

Scoring Potential

Both give the Jayhawks the potential to score from anywhere on the field and if the going gets sticky, Douglas can call on the Riggins' boys — Junior and John —both of whom run with power.

The job of stopping the Jayhawks will fall on an inexperienced Husker front line that has been improving each week, a better than average pair of linebackers in Ken Geddes and Jerry Murtaugh, and an experienced and talented defensive secondary.

Coaches' Capsules

Nebraska's Bob Devaney — "We hope we can disappoint those bowl people, who have come to watch a high-scoring Kansas team."

Kansas' Pepper Rodgers — "Last year we slipped up on Nebraska; if we beat Nebraska this year, it won't be because we slipped up on them."

Congress Fails To Adjourn

From Press Reports

Washington — Absenteeism in the House blocked final adjournment of Congress Friday night at least until Saturday and more likely until Monday.

The House and Senate were scheduled to meet Saturday, but it appeared virtually certain that this would be a mere gesture, with the two chambers hamstrung for the rest of the weekend by the lack of a quorum.

Both the Senate and the House had completed all the business on the legislative agenda and the Senate had adopted a reolution calling for final adjournment at the end of the Friday session. The Senate then recessed hoping that the House would adopt the resolution and end the session.

Scurry Home

But the House could not muster a quorum because too many members had scurried homeward after a 213 to 6 vote passed the $71.8 billion defense appropriation bill.

It is the largest single spending bill in history.

Senate approval by a voice vote followed quickly after House passage.

The defense bill provided $5.2 billion less than President Johnson requested.

Aid Is Lowest

The Senate also approved and sent to Johnson a record-low foreign aid spending bill of $1.75 billion. It was more than $1 billion under what he had termed a "bare bones" request.

Approval of the foreign aid budget, smallest in the 21-year history of the controversial program, was by voice vote without debate.

The Senate voted to reverse an earlier decision to slash $500 million from the federal medicaid program.

The Senate also passed and sent to the White House a $446 million catch-all money bill to supplement current spending programs.

Food Stamp Money

The measure would give the administration $55 million of the $90 million increase it sought for food stamps to spread the program of low cost food buying for the poor to areas of the country not now covered.

The bill also provides $25 million for rent suplements, under which rents paid by the poor are aided with federal funds; $25 million to help poor persons buy their own homes, and $2 million to start administration of the new open housing law which goes fully into effect next July.

4 Hurt In Grain Elevator Explosion

From Press Reports

Imperial — Four persons were injured late Friday in an explosion of undetermined origin at an elevator here.

The injured were identified as Sylvester Einspahr, about 60, of Imperial; Harold Diznag, Wauneta; Dick Seybold, McCook, and Jim Gonzales, McCook.

Einspahr and Diznag were flown to Denver for emergency treatment, Seybold remained hospitalized in Imperial and Gonzales was originally taken to a McCook hospital.

Einspahr was in the headhouse atop the elevator when the blast occurred. The other three were railroad employes working nearby.

Einspahr was rescued from atop the elevator early Friday evening. He suffered burns over a major portion of his body. He was found in semiconscious condition after he had crawled from the headhouse to the main portion of the elevator some 100 feet above the ground.

Diznag received burns to the back and chest, Seybold burns to the arms, and Gonzales incurred minor injuries from flying debris.

Authorities at the scene said the entire northern wall of the Frenchman Valley Farmers Cooperative elevator was blown out. A 10-foot square hole was also blown out of the west side of the high-rise elevator.

Concrete segments the size of footballs were thrown against a building 50 feet to the west of the elevator.

Two of the railway men injured were near the south door of the elevator when it blew out.

Witnesses said there was a brief fire, but the concussion apparently blew the flames out.

Laurel Johnson, publisher of the Imperial Republican, said the explosion occurred about 4:40 p.m. MDT.

The cause of the explosion was not immediately determined nor was a dollar estimate of damage made.

Imperial is located in extreme southwest Nebraska near the Colorado border.

Weaver Named Crime Commission Director

The Governor's Crime Commission Friday hired Walter D. Weaver, a Lancaster County deputy attorney, as its new executive director.

Atty. Gen. Clarence Meyer, commission chairman, said Weaver would assume his duties in the $15,000-a-year post on Nov. 1.

Meyer said Weaver was selected from among 20 applicants for the job, and the commission is "real fortunate" in securing a director of Waver's ability and experience.

Weaver, 40, received his law degree from Creighton University in 1962, engaged in private practice for several months at Lexington, before joining the Lancaster County Attorney's office in December of that year.

Meyer said Weaver would attend an Oct. 22-23 conference in Washington, D.C., for state crime commission directors.

Harvey Perlman, a University of Nebraska law professor, who has been interim director of the commission, will continue as a research consultant, Meyer said.

Meyer said Waver's first job will be to compile the state's application for $250,000 in federal planning money for the commission, due by Dec. 22.

Lancaster County Attorney Paul Douglas said Friday that a new deputy to replace Weaver would probably be named sometime next week.

Hatchett Firing Protested

New York — On New York University's Bronx campus, more than 100 students occupied two buildings from dawn to noon to protest the firing of John F. Hatchett, who had been director of the university's Martin Luther King Afro-American Student Center. Hatchett had called Richard Nixon, Hubert Humphrey and Albert Shanker, a New York teacher's unionist, "racist bastards." The 100 withdrew after the university said Hatchett could remain on campus as an adviser to black students.

Shanker charged that the principals had the authority to assign some or all of 83 "unwanted" teachers to nonclassroom duties.

President Threatens To Call Senate Back

World News

Washington (AP) — President Johnson said Friday he may call the Senate back into special session to ratify the nuclear nonproliferation treaty rather than wait until the new session in January, as Senate leaders plan.

The President said delays could force the United States into a dire dilemma if new nuclear powers come into being before the Senate acts.

Johnson taped for radio and television use his new appeal shortly before Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., told the Senate the pact to halt the spread of nuclear weapons would not be brought up in the session now ending.

First Priority

Mansfield said arrangements have been made for making the treaty the first order of business of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the new session in January.

Johnson said, "I know that the pressures of the election are upon us. But so are the responsibilities we were elected to fulfill. I hope the Senate will act now, with the highest interests of the nation in mind.

After Consultations

"But if members of the Senate find it impossible to remain and act now," the President said, "I shall, after consulting with other world leaders and leaders of the Senate, seriously consider calling the Senate into special session.

"I consider the adoption of this treaty that important to the security of our nation and world peace."

Johnson said he fears that forces working against the treaty in other countries will gain strength quickly and an increasing number of countries "will see it in their national interest to go nuclear. Some may be about to do so."

Johnson, said the United States could be faced with "either withdrawing our influence and commitment from areas of the world which are vital to our interests or having other nations trigger a nuclear conflict which could involve us."

Johnson made a thinly veiled reference to Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, and to Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, saying:

"Those who now argue for postponing ratification of the treaty must assume the grave responsibility for its failure — and for presenting our country with this dilemma."

2 Viet Cong Representatives In Paris

New York Times Service

Paris — Two political representatives of the National Liberation Front arrived Friday from Moscow to set up an information bureau and establish a Viet Cong presence at the fringes of the Vietnam talks.

Their arrival, although long agreed to and long anticipated, was considered a setback for the South Vietnamese government which had been urging French authorities to keep out the front while Saigon sought to improve its own strained relations with France.

This was a theme immediately hinted at by Pham Van Ba, a long-time political organizer for the front in the Saigon area who will serve as director of the front's information bureau.

He remarked in answer to a reporter's question that "things are going well for our side. If they weren't, I would not be here."

The arrival of the front officials means for the first time that all four principals in the Vietnam war have representatives in Paris. South Vietnam has a consulate general here, roughly on the same level of the North Vietnamese diplomatic legation.

Enemy Troops Elude Yankee Trap

Saigon (AP) — In a battle that swept through rice paddies and thick hedgerows, U.S. troops tried to trap 300 enemy troops on the northwest invasion corridor to Saigon Friday but most escaped. The Americans, however, captured another big weapons cache.

The battle broke out Thursday when 400 U.S. 25th Division infantrymen came under heavy fire from enemy troops dug in among the hedgerows near Trang Bang, 27 miles northwest of Saigon.

About 600 U.S. reinforcements were flown in and attempted to throw a cordon around the enemy as fighter-bombers, helicopter gunships and artillery hammered the hedgerows.

Fighting fired through the night but when U.S. infantrymen drove forward at dawn they met only small rear guard action. A sweep of the field turned up 26 enemy bodies. U.S. casualties were 6 killed and 16 wounded.

The Americans were part of a blocking force that has been seeking out the enemy to disrupt any plans for renewed attacks on Saigon.

While the fighting phase was a disappointment to the U.S. Command, the troops seized 2½ tons of enemy supplies.

An enemy defector led 25th Divison soldiers to two munitions stockpiles five miles south of the battlefield. The cache included 53 carbines, 150 mortar shells, 450 hand grenades, 300 Chinese-made Claymore mines, about 8,000 rounds of AK47 rifle ammunition and other supplies.

HHH, Muskie Offer To Pay Debate Costs

New York (AP) — The Democratic team of Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie sought to put heat on frontrunner Richard M. Nixon Friday by offering to guarantee the cost of televised debates — and charging he is afraid of a face-to-face confrontation.

Humphrey, appearing at a morning news conference, said that they had opened negotiations with a television network for an hour of time Sunday night, Oct. 20, for a three-way debate among Humphrey, Nixon and George C. Wallace, the third-party candidate.

Humphrey, with his running mate Muskie at his side, made the offer one day after Senate Republicans blocked legislation that would have changed the equal time regulations to permit free televised debates like those between the late John F. Kennedy and Nixon in 1960.

So far, Nixon has declined repeated invitations and challenges from Humphrey to enter a series of debates.

Muskie said Nixon is "afraid that a debate might cost him his lead."

ASTRONAUT'S WIFE . . . Mrs. Eisele holds on to youngest son Jon after launch, as other children, Donn, 12, and Melinda, 14, and her parents look on.

Astronauts' Families Thrilled

Space Center, Houston (AP) — The room, full of chatter moments before, was hushed as the voice of Mission Control counted: "Six . . . five . . . four . . . we have ignition."

Eleven-year-old Suzanne Schirra, who stayed home from school to watch her father shoot into space for the third time, couldn't hold back any more. She jumped up and clapped hands in joy.

"Beautiful. Gorgeous," murmured her mother, Mrs. Walter M. Schirra Jr., wife of the Navy captain who is commanding Apollo 7.

A few blocks away, at the home of Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele, 4-year-old Jon J. Eisele pointed to the picture of the Saturn rocket on the television screen and said "that's where Daddy is." As the rocket lifted off the pad, tears welled in his mother's eyes.

Scene At Home

That's how it was at home — within a few miles of the Manned Spacecraft Center — as Schirra, Eisele and civilian Walter Cunningham began the mission that sets the United States on the most ambitious space venture of all.

Cunningham's wife and their two children went to Cape Kennedy, Fla. for the launch.

Friends gathered early in the Schirra and Eisele homes.

Mrs. Donald Slayton, wife of the director of flight crew operations, spent the night and then made breakfast at the Schirra household. The wives of astronauts Alan B. Shepard, John Glenn and L. Gordon Cooper were there before the launch. Mrs. Robert R. Gilruth, wife of the space center's director, arrived soon afterward.

Goodies Served

The guests at the Eisele home brought goodies — cake, cookies, fruit. They included the wives of astronauts John W. Young and Thomas P. Stafford, as well as neighbors and the Rev. Bob Parrott, minister of the Seabrook Methodist Church.

Mrs. Eisele's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hamilton, of Gnadenhutten, Ohio, were staying with her.

"It sure went nice," said Hamilton, a retired machine tool factory worker. "I'm just tickled to death that it happened. We've been connected with this a long time, but it's never the same when it happens."

The Schirras' son, Walter III, is a freshman at Stanford University. He watched television with a group of friends.

"I've seen a lot of launches, but when I realize it's my father sitting up there, I really get a thrill," he said.

Czechs Told Unpopular Measures Needed

New York Times Service

Prague — Alexander Dubcek, first secretary of the Czechoslovak Communist Party, told the nation Friday night that unpopular measures were needed to get Soviet troops to start withdrawing and to salvage the essential elements of his liberalization program.

In an unexpected speech on nationwide television and radio, the Czechoslovak leader appealed to his countrymen for their continued support, saying in emotional tones, "This (the unpopular measures) is the reality we have to face."

He was reporting to the nation for the first time since his trip to Moscow a week ago to negotiate the measures needed for "normalization" of relations with the Soviet Union. It was a fighting speech by a man who seemed determined to hold on to his office as long as possible.

Dubcek said a solution to the problem of troop withdrawals would "take time" and that there would probably be no agreement on this until after normalization had been achieved.

Britain To Lead NATO's N-Plan

New York Times Service

Bonn — Britain was selected Friday to play a leading role in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's nuclear defense planning for the continent, a development the British consider a step into Europe that outflanks President De Gaulle's veto of their entry into the Common Market.

The NATO nuclear planning group, ending two days of meetings here, assigned Britain as the leading European nuclear power to work with West Germany, the biggest West European conventional power, to draw up defense guidelines for the alliance.

The two governments are to present their draft guidelines at the next nuclear planning group meeting in London at the end of May, 1969.

Initiative Taken

Authoritative British and American sources said the new program came about as a result of a deliberate British initiative undertaken by Defense Secretary Denis Healey.

He is understood to have explained this was one way for Britain to outflank De Gaulle's continuing veto of its application to enter the European Economic Community.

Healey also regards the success of his mission in Bonn as having "established Britain's credentials in Europe" more than ever before through the advocacy of a specifically European approach to defense planning.

3 Dissidents Exiled

Moscow (AP) Three Soviet intellectuals were sentenced Friday to relatively light terms in exile from Moscow and two others were sent to labor camps for staging a public protest in Red Square againt the invasion of Czechoslovakia.

After three days of testimony laced with denunciations of the invasion, the five were convicted of disturbing public order and slandering the Soviet Union. They had been arrested after demonstrating for about three minutes Aug. 25.

The organizers — Pavel Litvinov, grandson of Stalin's foreign minister, and Mrs. Larisa Daniel, wife of an imprisoned writer — were banished from Moscow for five and four years respectively. Konstantin Babitsky, a specialist in the history of the Russian language, was exiled for three years.

Their companions, Vladimir Dremlyuga and Vadim Delone, were sentenced to labor camps for three years and two years and 10 months respectively.

University Reform OK'd

New York Times Service

Paris —The French national assembly adopted early Friday a fundamental charter of university reform in response to the student upheaval of last May.

The 487-seat assembly approved the legislation by an over-whelming vote of 441 to 0 out of 480 deputies voting. There were 39 abstentions. The climactic vote came after a day-long session.

The approval came shortly after Premier Maurice Couve de Murville gave the project a final strong backing saying, "The whole government has made it an essential article of its program and action."

Faure Yields Little

Education Minister Edgar Faure, author of the reform, yielded only a few minor amendments as he steered his bill through. It remained the most sweeping educational shakeup since the present system was established under Napoleon.

Until now, most higher education in France has been, in effect, a single university, with the minister of education as its president. He has held all powers over funds, curriculum standards and staffing, except for the right of certain lifetime professors to appoint new colleagues.

Under the Faure reform, a wide measure of autonomy will be granted to each school in the system. The schools will be run by councils elected by the entire faculty, and by the students, with the provision that the faculty name at least 50% of the council members and that the councils be permitted to add community representatives.

Federal Study Favored Of New Water Proposal

. . . By Midwestern Rural Electric Leaders

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

Rural electric leaders from four midwestern states Friday urged regional governors and congressmen to support a $600,000 federal appropriation to study a new water resources plan for the Great Plains.

The proposal, which would divert water from the Missouri River across Nebraska and southward to Texas, has been authored by R. W. Beck & Associates engineering firm.

Delegates to the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association regional meeting in Lincoln praised the plan in a resolution adopted at their closing session.

The resolution urges federal appropriations of $300,000 to begin a detailed study of the proposal, and $300,000 for a new study of slack-water navigation on the lower Missouri River.

The water diversion plan proposed by the Beck firm would cost between $3 billion and $3.5 billion.

Series Of Dams

As much as $2 billion to $2.5 billion of the expenditure would be within Nebraska. The plan envisions a series of eight or nine dams across the state, pumping water from the Missouri River below Fort Randall to a reservoir to be built near Alliance.

Water would move through a 940-mile concrete lined canal across Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico into Texas.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has developed its own plan to divert water from the Mississippi River in Louisiana to Texas.

In other resolutions, NRECA delegates urged Congress to develop a Rural Electrification Administration loan program "fully adequate to meet the capital needs of rural electrics and to effectively lower the rising backlog of loan applications."

Rural-Urban Balance

Congress was also asked to develop and implement a national policy of rural-urban balance to provide for "full development of rural areas."

The NRECA financing subcommittee earlier informed delegates that a study of supplemental financing for rural electric systems has thus far reached no conclusions on recommendations.

REA Administrator Norman Clapp was the featured speaker at Friday's sessions.

Clapp told the delegates that the future of rural electrification in America will depend upon the man "who sits in the White House."

Needed particularly, he said, are "the kind of support and personal commitment Vice President Humphrey has consistently given this program."

McNeil Explains Procedure In State Income Tax Refunds

By The Associated Press

State Tax Commissioner Murrell B. McNeil said Friday the public "has a serious misconception" about state income tax refunds.

"We are now aware that many of our citizens have the impression that they will not be given a refund on taxes paid to the state," he said in a letter addressed to news media, asking help in clearing up misconceptions. "Part of this is lack of understanding and then there has also been some willful distortions."

McNeil cited some hypothetical examples to illustrate Nebraska's food sales tax credit and tax withholding procedures.

A family of four with income of $4,800, filing a joint return and using the standard 10% deduction, would wind up with a state income tax liability of $28, one of his examples showed. This amount would have been withheld from wages and remitted to the state during the year. However, the four family members each would be entitled to a $7 food sales tax credit for the year, or a total of $28. This would offset the $28 tax bill and the family would receive a refund check for the $28 paid via withholding.

In the case of a family of four with income of $6,000, using the 10% standard deduction, the state income tax liability, rounded to the whole dollar, would be $45. The withholding would have totaled $46 during the year, it was calculated, and the $28 food sales tax credit would bring the family a refund check from the state of $29.

The state income tax for individuals is based on 10% of one's federal tax liability, but the state bill then is reduced by the food sales tax credit.

State Income Tax Halt 'Would Only Bring New Levy'

Milford (UPI) — State Sen. Stanley Matzke of Milford said Friday if the state's income tax is thrown out and replaced with another tax it will "hit hardest at the middle and lower income groups while giving a break to the rich."

Matzke said it would be impossible to just get rid of the income tax and not replace it with another levy of some type.

"The state has appropriated money for the operation of state government during this biennium and is depending on the income tax to help meet these expenditures," he said. "There is no possible way to suddenly lop off the income tax without making up the loss from some other tax.

Matzke said if the income tax is thrown out the $7 per person refund now given on the sales tax would be lost.

Matzke said an alternative to raising state taxes in another area would be to halt state aid to cities, counties and schools. He said this would merely create higher local property taxes.

Summary of Conditions

A weak cold front extends from just north of Lake Superior southwestward to a low in southwestern Kansas then northwestward to northwestern Wyoming and westward to a low off the northwestern Oregon coast. A weak high pressure ridge runs from Canada southward through the western Dakotas into western Nebraska.

While not much weather is expected with these systems, the presence of the front in the Nebraska-Iowa area will cause partly cloudy conditions over most of Nebraska and western Iowa with somewhat unsettled conditions near the frontal zone.

By Saturday evening the northern portion of the front will have moved east of the Great Lakes and the Dakotas high will be over the northern Lakes area allowing the front to move northeastward as a warm front extending southeastward from a low in northeastern Montana through South Dakota and across extreme northern Iowa.

Looting Reported In Detroit After Baseball Victory

Detroit (UPI) — Looting broke out after a celebration of the Detroit Tigers World Series victory, police said Friday.

Several plate glass windows were broken at stores, police said, and merchandise in the windows was stolen. Police said there were 99 arrests in the downtown area, at least 39 for looting.

A young woman was raped by a man who dragged her into bushes at a park in the middle of the downtown area.

A man was arrested, police said, for shooting a rifle in Kennedy Square.

Police finally sealed off the downtown area.

Lincoln Man, 49, Injured Critically In Auto Accident

A 49-year-old Lincoln man was reported in critical condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital early Saturday morning following a one-car accident on Interstate 180 north of Lincoln.

Authorities said Harvey Malone of 4511 East Eden Dr. was injured when his auto struck a highway sign late Friday night.

Malone was thrown from his auto, authorities said, and was found in the ditch by a passing motorist.

Hospital spokesmen said Malone suffered a leg fracture and severe internal injuries.

$100,000 Dream Becomes Reality With Opening Of Red Cloud Airport

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Red Cloud — When it comes to airports, this town's third time is a charmer.

Scheduled for dedication this Sunday is a new municipal field prompting superlatives even from the State Department of Aeronautics. Located a mile west of town, it is flat as a billiard table and nearly as well lighted.

"The state tells us we now have the best approach known in all of Nebraska," said Gordon Buster, manager of the improvement and one of five Airport Authority members. "At last we have landing lights and a revolving beacon and 3,200 feet of runway. And it's quite a change landing on the level instead of our old strip with its 80 foot slope."

Also on the authority are chairman Delbert Lewis, Dean Reddick, Harold Whittaker and Berle Sherman. They have spent several years making the $100,000 dream layout a reality.

Local boosters hope to see dozens of planes setting down for the Sunday ceremonies. Things take off with an 8 a.m. flyin breakfast, other activities ranging from a balloon busting contest to glider rides to a free noon barbecue.

Air Show Slated

The 1:30 p.m. dedication itself will feature an address by Rep. Dave Martin. Colorful fly-overs are scheduled later, both by the Nebraska Air National Guard and by home-built and antique aircraft.

'NEW INDIAN' . . . graces 1968 mail cachet, left, compared to 1931 version.

"This time we're not charging, for that was tried at a 1931 dedication and the sponsors only lost money," said Whittaker. "A big air show was held and was fine except that too many people discovered they could see it free from a mile away. A lot of them did get their first plane ride, though, in an old Ford Tri-Motor."

Commemorating that occasion was a mail cachet that was copied — except for a "better looking Indian" — for the 1968 ceremony. Claude Peirce, a sparkplug of the Ad Club which promoted the first dedication, still has the original rubber stamp.

Requests from practically every state have poured in this time since the American Airmail Society publicized a special mailing and new cover. Mrs. Marla Mathew, who became cachet director through her position as Chamber of Commerce secretary, even has envelopes from Canada, Germany and England.

Half financed by federal funds, the new airport includes a 200-foot sixplace hanger. There is hope that the new facility will eventually bring direct airmail service to the area.

Slated for closing "Saturday at dusk" is the municipal field which has served since 1950. It had been developed as a private strip by attorney Claude Phillips before acquisition by the city.

"The golf course and airport have been side-by-side for years," smiled Mrs. Mathew. "It has worked out okay except sometimes the golfers had to swing and duck at the same time."

Hospital Unit To Study Worker Benefits Plan

Kenney

Wade

Omaha (AP) — The Nebraska Hospital Association will study the feasibility of setting up a statewide program of employe benefits, it was announced Friday as the group closed its annual convention here.

Retirement, lost time regulations and insurance are among the aspects which probably will be considered, Stuart C. Mount of Lincoln, association executive director, said.

He said unified purchasing for the state's hospitals also would be looked into.

James W. Kenney, administrator of Mary Lanning Memorial Hospital in Hastings, was elected president. President-elect is Daryle A. Wade, administrator of Lutheran Community Hospital in Norfolk.

Kenney appointed Mrs. Eugene F. Brown of Omaha, as chairman of the Nebraska Hospital Association Council on Auxiliaries, and Mrs. Rueben Wilds of Scottsbluff as vice chairman. Mrs. Brown succeeds Mrs. Leon Nefsky of Lincoln.

William R. Ryan, executive director of St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha, is association vice president.

Other officers, all administrators, include: W. Robert Brungard, Lincoln, secretary; Sister Lucy of St. Mary Hospital, Scottsbluff, Mrs. Phyllis Schmidt of Omaha, Mark Shellaberger of Grant, and Richard C. Schripseman of Omaha trustees.

Authorities said the youngster was struck by a truck while riding his tricycle at 6th and Pierce Streets.

Arias In Canal Zone; Panama Coup Claimed

Panama (AP) — President Arnulfo Arias took refuge Friday night in the U.S.-controlled Panama Canal Zone and a national guard officer declared the entire country under military control after a bloodless coup.

Lt. Col. Omar Torrijos said the coup against Arias' 11-day-old government was supported by all the officers and men of the national guard.

Torrijos said it had not been decided yet whether to set up a military junta or to ask First Vice President Raul Arango to become president.

Torrijos said he and Maj. Bories Martinez, commander of the Chiriqui province military zone, were co-leaders of the coup. He said Col. Bolivar Urrutia, who took command of the national guard Friday, and Lt. Col. Aristides Hassan, who became deputy chief, would be asked Saturday to take command of the coup. He said both were at home Friday night.

Arias, 67, had twice been overthrown as president in three decades. He was sworn in for his third term Oct. 1, after winning a clear-cut victory in elections last May.

The national guard, Panama's only armed force, plays a major role in the nation's political life, and guard commanders have been at odds with Arias since he was first elected president in 1940.

EVENTS

IN PERSPECTIVE

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Almost at the precise minute it was planned, the Apollo 7 spacecraft was lifted off its pad by a giant Saturn 1B rocket. Burning 720 gallons of fuel per second and traveling at 17,240 miles per hour, the rocket sent three American astronauts into orbit around the earth.

The venture is a prelude to the U.S. landing of man on the moon, possibly by Christmas of 1969. Many things remain to be done before that, of course, but a lot will depend on this present mission alone.

At this point, the major hope is that all goes well with Apollo 7, that it successfully and safely completes its mission. Then, the U.S. will begin looking forward to other manned and unmanned flights before the actual trip to the moon is taken.

★

This Apollo 7 program will not settle the age-old question of whether the U.S. or Russia is ahead in the space race. It is an age-old question in the space contest, even though it is a question less than 10 years old.

Nor will it settle the debate over U.S. spending for space exploration. From a high of more than $5 billion, the annual budget for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has fallen to about $4 billion — a sacrifice to the spending critics.

No one even knows what answers the U.S. will find when it finally does land on the moon. Once we have gathered the information about the moon, what will we do with it?

We may or may not ever get clear-cut answers to these questions. And without clear-cut answers, a lot of people are hard to convince. Many of them still ask why we spend billions on space when we haven't solved the problems here on earth.

Actually, it is a ridiculous question. We spend money in a great many areas that look to the future while the problems of the present remain unsolved. We spend money to improve agricultural production when we haven't yet licked the problem of surpluses.

If you followed the theory that you could spend nothing on new programs until all the old programs had reached perfection, you would never embark upon a new venture. The fact is that our space program gives us a great many benefits.

First of all, it is a search for knowledge and that is most important. Mankind needs to find out about and come to know those things about his total environment with which he is not yet familiar.

Earlier men explored the world around them and long before their societies had solved all their local problems. Where would we be today if men centuries ago had said that they could not venture forth because too many things remained to be done where they were?

★

The space program, at this time, could be a particularly constructive program. It directs our efforts toward the accomplishment of something worthwhile, provides us with a sense of direction, unity and dedication. In this respect, it is a rather welcome departure from the conflicts and divisions that have been the public bill of fare for several years.

It is a mistake for a nation and its people to become too pragmatic, to forget that it has come to know only a very tiny fraction of all the knowledge there is to learn about in the world.

We work at creating life in a laboratory, despite the fact that a lot of people say we have too many persons upon the face of the earth. Why, then, search for other means of forming life?

The search for all such knowledge simply has to go on if we are to progress, if we are to make the world of tomorrow a better place in which to live. By exploring space, we hope to find the means of improving life here on earth.

Pamphlet Of Madam X Has Promise Of Utopia

NEW YORK—In an election year the daily mail is awash with political pamphlets, and the expectation is that the street distribution of such tracts will be lively, too.

However, these are parlous times, we keep hearing. And in parlous times, man needs more stern guidance and soul food then can be squeezed from dry exhortation to vote Democratic, or Republican, or the party of your choice. Sociologists say that man turns to the accult when the world is too much with him.

Apparently it — the world — is too much with him — man — at the moment. For when I walk abroad in New York these rare autumn days, I return home with a fistful not of political tracts for HHH or RMN or GW, but of pamphlets advertising the virtuosity and power of spiritual healers, readers, advisors, astrologers and palmists.

My favorite, to date, is a potent pitch to the troubled citizen from a woman who shall be known here as Madam X. At the top of her tract is the single word "POWER" and just beneath that word a sketch of a figure so blurred it could be either an Old Testament prophet or a mod guru.

However, Madam X's message is not blurred, and she is plainly the girl for me. "Friends, we urge you to see this holy, religious woman," her message begins and continues, "God's messenger who guarantees to heel the sick and ailing, to remove all suffering & bad luck. Calls your enemies by name and tells who to keep away from.

"She's a religious, holy woman who shows you with your own eyes how she removes sorrow, sickness, pain & bad luck.

"Touch of her hand will heal you. She has God given power to heal by prayer. She can give you peace of mind. She can bring happiness into your home. She can help you prosper. She can help you with your misunderstandings. If you want help, talk to this woman."

Her rivals, whose tracts I have examined, cannot touch Madam X's virtuosity or appeal. Anyone who can exercise bad luck, which is what bugs most of us, and name the enemies who are causing it, will go far. If man could just get rid of his burden of bad luck, he could cope on his own with sorrow, sickness and pain, and provide his own happiness and prosperity.

Man does not live by bread alone in an election year, as Madam X knows and the candidates have yet to learn. And if I were a presidential candidate or the head of a large Madison Avenue advertising firm, I would rush to enlist Madam's services — not as healer, reader or clairvoyant, but as the best hard-sell copywriter in the business.

IDA Bonds And REA

Congress has acted to set the ceiling of tax exemption for industrial development bonds, known as IDA bonds, at $5 million. The action was hailed by Rep. Robert Denney as a "real boost to rural America."

There is not much argument with that. IDA bonds help a local area acquire new industry by advancing to the prospect the offer of tax-exempt financing.

The bonds provide the cash by which an industry establishes itself. Issued by a governmental agency, the bonds carry no tax upon their income, thus providing capital much cheaper than it could be acquired in the private market.

At the same time that Denney was approving this action by Congress, a speaker in Lincoln was noting that Rural Electrification Administration financing of rural power projects would be greatly curtailed if Republicans were victorious in November.

The speaker may or may not be right —we don't know. But if IDA bonds are a good deal for rural areas, the REA is even better. IDA bonds first of all are a subsidy to private industry and secondarily a help to the areas in which the industry locates.

REA loans, on the other hand, are a direct subsidy to a public agency, owned by the very people it serves. It would be an ironic thing if the REA loan setup were destroyed and the IDA bonds program were continued.

IDA still embodies the old trickle-down theory — assure prosperity at the top and some of it will naturally flow down to lower levels. We are not against IDA but such things should be clearly understood if we hope to maintain our perspective.

Foreign Press Views U.S. Race

The many Americans who are disenchanted with all three presidential candidates are not alone. Our overseas friends feel the same way.

A sampling of world press comment from the October issue of Atlas included these remarks:

—The London Economist: Nixon's insincerity . . . is the measure of his mediocrity. But his Democratic adversary is probably worth little more. At times Humphrey . . . says he has no intention of repudiating his party's and his President's record; at other times he makes statements not unlike those of the pacifist McCarthy . . .

—The Munich Suddeutsche Zeitung: Nixon certainly has no charisma; he awakes little warm affection such as aroused by Eisenhower and Kennedy.

—The London Sunday Telegraph: Nixon remains—as he has always been—thoroughly second-rate, neither hateable nor lovable, neither very good nor very bad—a routine mediocrity with a higher than average knack for making political blunders, the latest of which may well be his sensationally uninspired choice of a running mate.

Le Nouveau Journal of Paris: The contrast between what (John) Kennedy represented and what can be expected from the old warhorse, Humphrey, is much more likely to cause disappointment and regret than enthusiasm for the nominee.

But perhaps the most calm, intelligent appraisal if the American dilemma came from The London Economist, which said, "It is easy to imagine an ideal president of the United States who could unite his country and lead the world. But so far he has not materialized this year. The Americans, and everyone else, must try to manage with the men they have."

Factors In Ball Decision To Quit U.N.; Martin Walks Out On Closed-Door Vote

WASHINGTON — The full story of George Ball's sudden resignation as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, a position of cabinet rank, has not yet been told.

Officially it is known that Ball told President Johnson he could not stand on the sidelines and see American foreign policy jeopardized by the election of Richard Nixon, a man whose shoot-from-the-hip speeches as vice president had come near upsetting Eisenhower's coexistence policy.

Ball told LBJ he wanted to get out and campaign for Humphrey right away.

"I guess Hubert needs you more than the United Nations," the President said, and accepted Ball's resignation.

However, this was not all of the story.

Before making his decision, Ball had flown to Paris to check on the truce talks to see whether his getting into the political campaign would hurt them. He discovered quite the contrary.

For, on at least two occasions, Ambassador Averell Harriman had been on the verge of real success in negotiating with the North Vietnamese, only to have the rug pulled out from under him in Washington.'

Either President Johnson, or some of those close to him, obviously did not want to make any concessions toward a truce. The President had kept a tight rein on his negotiators, Harriman and Cyrus Vance, despite the fact that they are two of the most experienced negotiators to represent the United States in recent years.

Furthermore Ball discovered that Vice President Humphrey had been deliberately barred from seeing the Vietnam diplomatic cables ever since he opposed LBJ on Vietnam war policy in January, 1966. Prior to that time, the vice president had seen all confidential cables pertaining to the war and to peace efforts to end the war. But in January, 1966, he was suddenly cut off.

This followed a period when the vice president had privately opposed the bombing of North Vietnam.

The decision to bomb the north was taken at 2 a.m. Feb. 7, 1965, at a White House conference called after the Viet Cong had staged a brilliant sneak attack on Pleiku which destroyed a number of American planes.

Ball had attended that conference as acting secretary of state and had opposed the decision to bomb. However, the Joint Chiefs of Staff had long wanted to bomb the north, a policy advocated by Sen. Barry Goldwater and opposed by President Johnson all during the 1964 election.

Nevertheless, Johnson, though only 17 days in office and defeating Goldwater, reversed himself at the midnight White House conference, overruled Ball, and accepted the military's advice.

Vice President Humphrey was not present at the midnight meeting. But thereafter he expressed private opposition to the bombing. He remained loyal to the President as far as any public statements were concerned, but he did speak out repeatedly inside the National Security Council, of which he is a member.

Finally, he was cut off from the routine Vietnamese cables.

Republican House members did their best to save Nixon from a showdown debate with Hubert Humphrey. However, they were unable to prevent a vote on the "equal time" TV bill in the Rules Committee.

Rep. Dave Martin, R-Neb., walked out in a huff just before the closed-door vote, snorting: "We all agreed that we wouldn't meet again to take up anything unless it was of a critical nature. This bill isn't critical. So I'm leaving."

When Chairman William Colmer, D-Miss., called for a voice vote, Martin's four GOP colleagues on the committee — John Anderson, Ill., H. Allen Smith, Calif., James Quillen, Tenn., and Delbert Latta, Ohio — sat defiant in stony silence.

However, all of the committee's ten Democrats except Spark Matsunaga, Hawaii, who was absent, voted "aye," so the bill went to the House floor for final approval.

Tax Figures

Lincoln, Neb.

The Business Bureau of Nebraska University has done a signal service to the public by publishing in its September bulletin a study of the counties and their attendant per capita tax levies.

The report does not gratify the pride of native Nebraskans but statistics do not always support the claims of professional publicists or of optimistic advertisers.

Of the state's 93 counties, 57 have lost population, an average of 16 per cent between 1950 and 1966. Sixteen counties have stood pat and 20 have increased in head count. The legal maximum levy for county expenses is 14.26 mills. Nearly all of the small counties—there are 21 with fewer than 5,000 people—have levied the maximum. Two counties who tried to go beyond that figure because of bridge and county road costs on account of a flood were stopped by court order.

The lawful cost of government in the poorer counties is not much less than the expense in the larger counties because practically the same number of officers are required and at comparable salaries. When 16 people leave, those who remain on the farms and in the villages must pay the taxes or be deprived of needed improvements in services.

The trend of raising salaries for county officials has been a boon to some counties whose officers give first attention to their own businesses and come to the courthouse only on urgent needs. A county judge opened his office 11 times in 12 months and then only to issue 10 marriage licenses and accept a guilty plea from a marijuana peddler.

The Legislature authorized county boards to consolidate the services of county superintendents of schools for two or more counties but it has not been widely practiced for sentimental reasons. For years county attorneys have been employed from other areas. A constitutional amendment will be voted on in November to permit small counties to unite or attach themselves to a large county by majority vote of both concerned.

The exodus of the family farmer started 40 years ago with the coming of the machine age. It has continued for two other reasons: Old age has driven field workers to hospitals and doctors; then, too, the boys and girls of the farms have acquired educations that qualify them for better income in industrial cities where they emigrate without paying the Nebraska taxpayers for the expense of their exported schooling. The retiring farmers are a social and economic loss to their communities and are a headache to the cities where they are not invited and do not fit. Nebraska's broad prairies give space for 15 people per square mile against an average of 133 in the nation after 20 of the large cities are not included.

The study shows that Harlan County suffered the heaviest population loss, 37 per cent, with a 111 percentage increase of per capita taxes. With the same average of 111 per cent increase for the 57 declining counties, Sarpy experienced the heaviest increase in residents, 276 per cent, followed by Douglas and Lancaster. Hayes paid the heaviest per capita taxes, $452, for 1966.

Rural Nebraska needs more people and less public expense or it may consolidate governmental units.

DuBois, Neb.

The picture of the little Czechoslovakian girl walking away from the Russian soldier (Star, Oct. 9) made me smile. She would walk away from an American, too — I know, for I was there.

The people of Czechoslovakia have little love for us Americans because of our unjustified killing in Vietnam. Czechoslovakia is supplying North Vietnam with war equipment in exchange for rubber, a legitimate trade.

We, the United States, give our war material away. We receive nothing for it. This enriches a few with blood money which we taxpayers are compelled to finance.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON

The Loyal Opposition

Thomas Jefferson, John Quincy Adams, Woodrow Wilson and John Kennedy are the only U.S. presidents who were genuine intellectuals.

Adlai Stevenson, striving diligently to join the elite group of thinking chief executives, ran headlong into the American voter's predilection for preferring soldiers to statesmen and suffered two decisive defeats.

Stevenson's interest in politics came naturally, for his grandfather and namesake was vice president during Grover Cleveland's second term and William J. Bryan's running mate in 1900, the year Adlai II was born in Los Angeles.

☆ ☆ ☆

After his graduation from Northwestern University in 1926, Stevenson practiced law in Chicago for 15 years. From 1941 to 1944 he served as assistant secretary of the Navy. His next political service involved several important posts in the formation of the United Nations.

In his first try for elective office, Stevenson was elected governor of Illinois by a plurality of over half a million votes. His wit, honesty and moderation made him an extremely popular governor, and in 1952 he was drafted as the Democratic presidential nominee, opposing the Republican Dwight Eisenhower.

Stevenson lost to Mr. Eisenhower by 6 million votes. The two men opposed each other again in 1956, this time Stevenson losing by the humiliating 10-million margin.

☆ ☆ ☆

Although he was the loser, many observers feel that Stevenson's erudition and wit played a more decisive part in changing the political pattern of the United States than he might have had he won. Certainly he helped to change the word "egghead" from one of contempt to one of praise, politically speaking.

Stevenson's dedicated work during his last years as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations added greatly to his rank as a statesman. No man was more aware of this than John F. Kennedy, who thwarted Stevenson's third attempt for the presidency.

When members of Kennedy's staff suggested replacing Stevenson after the Cuban missile crisis, President Kennedy peremptorily rejected the idea.

"It makes no sense," he said. "Where could I get anyone who could do half as good a job?"

It was a good question and a fitting epitaph.

LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY:

Son's Family Is Cold, Haughty

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. — "'I'm 66 and lost my wife last year. All I've got now is my son and his family who live two hours away by train. I'm retired from watch repairing and would like to visit them occasionally. But they never invite me. My son is good and sends me a check each month, but his wife and teenage daughters treat me like mud. They're cold and haughty and don't seem to want me around. What can I do?''

A. — Some of us are blessed with warm, friendly in-laws and kin. And some are burdened with cold fish. When we're unlucky enough to get the fish dish there's not much we can do except stay out of reach and spare our emotions. Try to correct whatever it is your son's wife and daughters dislike about you. If this doesn't work, don't let it worry you. Continue to show your son and his family your good will, and let them know you'd like to visit them occasionally. Then join senior clubs and take up personal interests so you won't feel dependent on them. Millions of elders have no families whatever, yet manage to find contentment and happiness in later years.

Q. — "There's a retired widow two doors away who calls herself 'Aunt Mary' and thinks she's part of our family just because we go to the same church. She drops by for a chat once or twice a week, and phones nearly every day. We try to be pleasant but frankly she's a pest. What can we do?''

A. — When people barge into our lives uninvited and become a nuisance we've got to be firm and frank in telling them to leave us alone. Just make sure you're not being selfish. If this woman is well-intentioned and needs human contact, you have the opportunity of practicing your religion by demonstrating patience and understanding.

☆ ☆ ☆

Q. — "Until I retired I never noticed trees. But two years ago something clicked and for the first time I saw what a marvelous, incredible thing a tree really is. I've absorbed everything I can find on trees, have a set of beautiful slides of 58 varieties of trees, and am in big demand as a speaker before local clubs. Please urge others to discover that Kilmer was right."

A. — Sure will, Retirement gives us the time to discover nature's superb handiwork, not only in trees but in rocks, soil, birds, flowers, and the heavens.

Larson: Lincoln Could Be Center

"Nebraska can be a center of transportation in the country if we take advantage of our central location and facilities," Lincoln legislative candidate Richard H. Larson said Friday.

Larson, former four-term member of the State Railway Commission, said he hopes to utilize his experience in transportation regulation and development as a member of the Unicameral.

All interested parties should reappraise the economic factors which have contributed to railroad passenger service cuts, he suggested.

"Honest reappraisal can only result in improved passenger services," Larson declared.

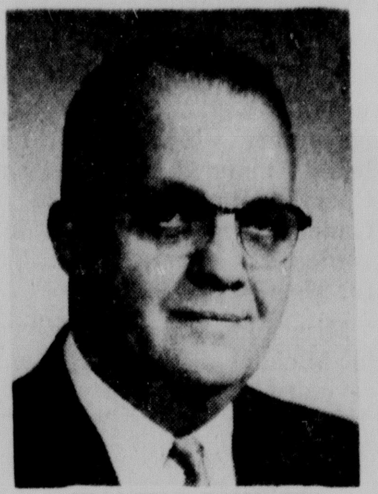
Newcomen Society Honors Behlen



WALTER BEHLEN

Behlen Manufacturing Co. of Columbus and its founder and board chairman, Walter D. Behlen, Friday became the fifth Nebraska institution and business leader to be honored by the Newcomen Society in North American.

The Newcomen Society is a non-profit membership corporation of 17,000 businessmen and educators engaged in the study of business, industrial and institutional history.

It is affiliated with the Newcomen Society of England, named after Thomas Newcomen who invented the first practical steam engine which contributed to the start of the industrial revolution.

E. J. Faulkner, chairman of the Nebraska Newcomen committee, said Behlen, a manufacturer of steel structures, was honored "for the creativity and success of his enterprise."

"It is unique and has made a great contribution to industry and to the economy of the State of Nebraska," Faulkner said.

Behlen delivered the Newcomen address, based on the history of his company, to a banquet audience of some 300 regional business, industrial and education leaders.

Eric Hall Morrison, of Downington, Pa., vice president of the Newcomen Society, attended the banquet. Behlen was introduced by University of Nebraska Chancellor Clifford Hardin, a director of Behlen Manufacturing Co.

Other Nebraska institutions honored by the society in the past include The First National Bank of Lincoln, Omaha National Bank, University of Nebraska and Woodmen Accident and Life Insurance Co., of Lincoln.

Shoestring Start

In his remarks, Behlen told of a shoe-string operation that started in his basement and garage in Columbus in 1941, during the time he was an employe of Railway Express.

With the help of his father, Fred, and brothers Gilbert and Herbert, Behlen experimented in inventions, coming up with such items as a quick heating soldering iron and a husking hook for corn "which was obsolete as soon as it was invented."

Steel toe caps for shoes was the first bread-and-butter item for Behlen, followed by lid fasteners for egg cases, clasps for dental plates and high-temperature thermometers for industry.

First Big Order

In the 1950's, Behlen Manufacturing got its first large-scale contract, a 268,000 order for tractor and grader power steering units from Internatinal Harvestor. During that decade, the firm began marketing its biggest selling products —bins and dryers and other equipment related to grain storage and processing.

Today, Behlen said, the physical plant has grown to 14 acres under roof. The company has 1,008 employes taking in a $5 million annual payroll and has $20 million in sales per year.

New products on the drawing boards include a high-powered press for the synthetic manufacturing of diamonds and turbines for grain aeration and drying.

Behlen said, "we play the confidence game —win and hold the confidence of the three groups of people we deal with: bankers, suppliers and customers. And there are the very highest type of players on both sides of the gaming table."

The 40th weddiig anniversary is traditionally known as the Ruby Anniversary.

Robert E. Weir, Former County Agent, Dies At 70

Hartington — Funeral services will be held here Monday, October 14 for Robert E. Weir, longtime Nebraska County Extension agent and a University of Nebraska varsity track and cross-country letterman in the 1920's.

Weir died Friday morning at the Omaha Veterans Hospital at the age of 70. Services will be held at the Congregational Church at Hartington at 10:30 a.m. Monday, with burial at the Page, Neb. cemetery.

A 1924 graduate of NU with a B.S. degree, Weir was a member of varsity track and cross-country teams and of N Club.

He served 28 years in the Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service, from 1935 to his retirement in June, 1963. He served as Nance County Agent from 1935-1948, and continuously as Cedar County Agent from that year until his retirement 5 years ago.

Weir was born in Clay County and was graduated from Clay Center High School. He taught rural school for a brief time and served in the U.S. Army in World War I prior to attending the University.

Surviving are wife, Velna; sons, Roy Edwin of Texas, Lt. James of Manhattan, Kan.; daughters, Mrs. Louis (Norma Jean) Nelton of Flagstaff, Ariz., Mrs. Jerry Retche of Seward, Mrs. Dan Pederson of Omaha; sisters, Mrs. Nellie Mundorff of Hastings, Mrs. William Fisher and Mrs. Joe Klingel, both of Lincoln, and several grandchildren.

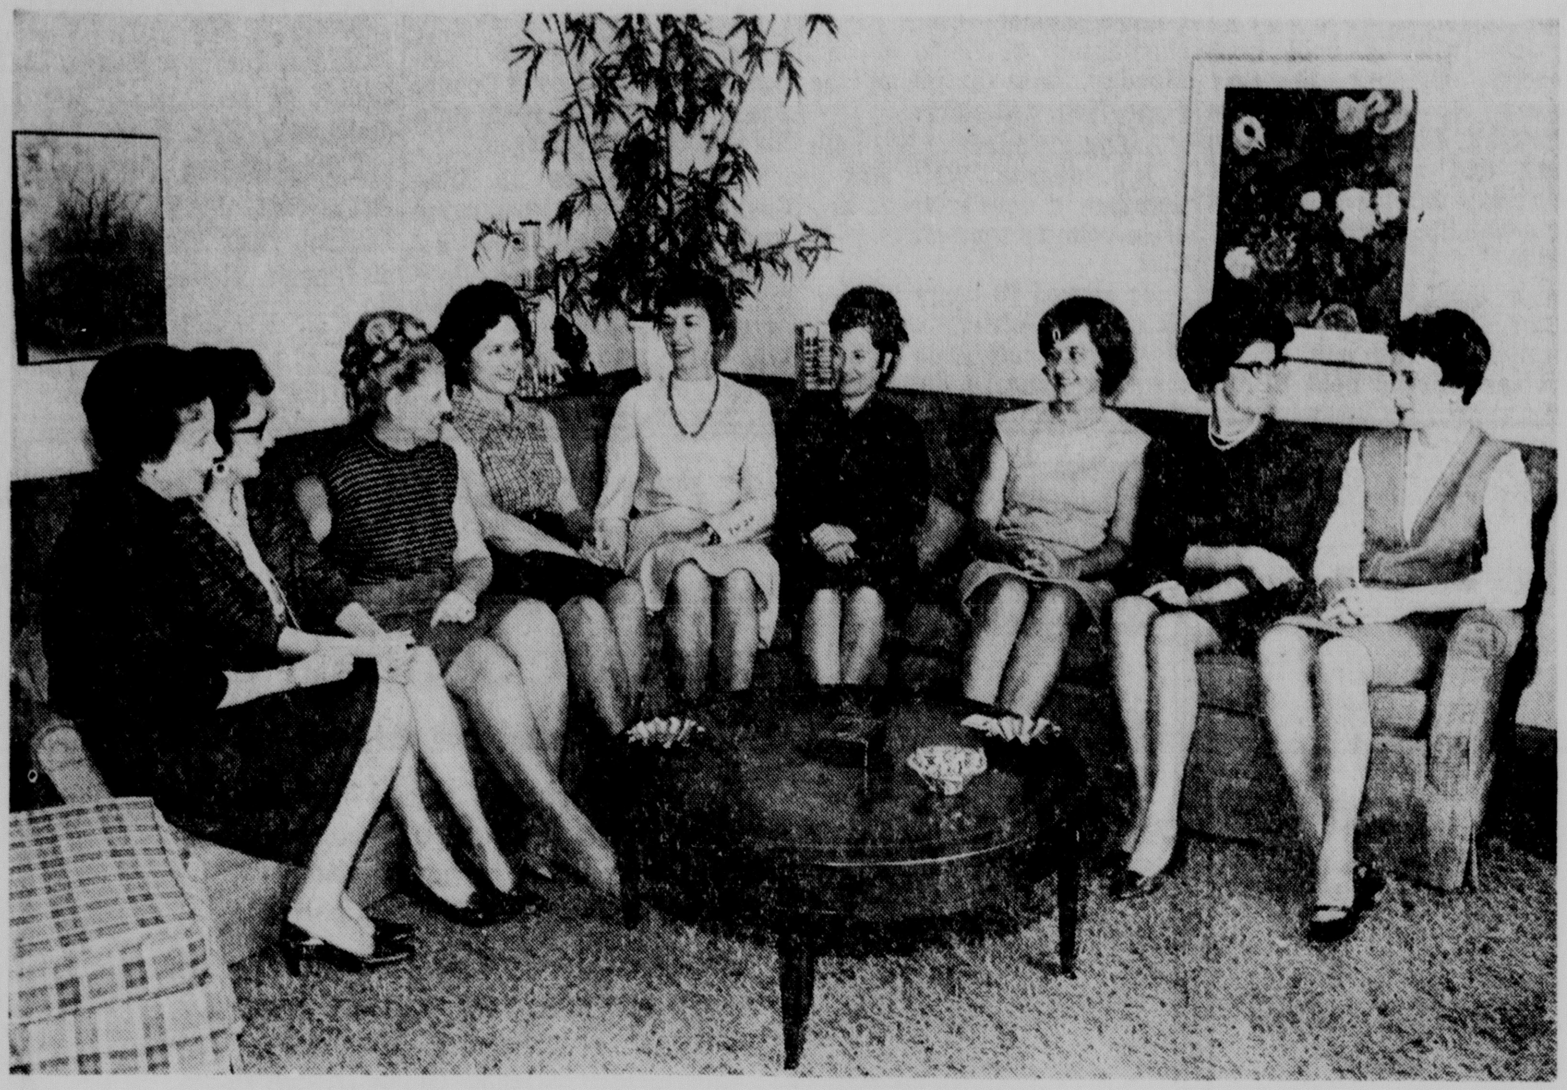
Mrs. Devaney Entertains At Luncheon



If there were any predictions concerning the outcome of today's game made at the party, we didn't hear about them. We suspect, however, that Cornhsuker football wasn't completely ignored.

The party hostess, you see, was Mrs. Robert Devaney who entertained the wives of the men in the athletic department at the University of Nebraska, at luncheon Friday at her home.

The News Around Town

Variety seems to be the name of the game this morning — There are guests —and more to come — there are travelers and we have news of a late November party.

* * *

We'll begin the news with the current guests — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dobson of Exeter, Calif., who arrived last Wednesday, and who plan to leave immediaely after the game today.

For Mr. and Mrs. Dobson being in Lincoln on game day and not being among the spectators at Memorial Stadium would be rank heresy. Mr. Dobson, you see, played football with the Cornhuskers back in the '20's, and Mrs. Dobson is an avid Cornhusker fan. She is the former Betty Brown, a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a member of Delta Gamma.

* * *

Another former Lincoln resident whose name will strike a familiar chord in the memory of many residents is Mrs. George E. Clark (Marjorie Selleck) of Washington D.C. Mrs. Clark arrives next Tuesday to spend a week as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Selleck.

* * *

But back to the current weekend and another guest — Miss Gretchen Groth is arriving from Ann Arbor, Mich., but her stay in town will be very brief.

Miss Groth arrived barely in time to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Groth on their trip to Mexico City and the Olympics. They'll miss the opening days but plan to remain until the last event is completed.

For Miss Groth, who is careering a bit in Ann Arbor while working toward her Ph.D. at the University of Michigan, watching the Olympic Games will not be a new experience. She was very much present in Tokyo when that city played host to the Olympics.

There couldn't be a better time than a game Saturday to give you news of a former Cornhusker star, Lyle Sittler. Mr. Sittler, if you remember, was an outstanding center on the Husker squad and was co-captain of the team in 1964.

But after all, this story isn't completely dominated by Mr. Sittler — a couple of other people are involved, too. Mrs. Sittler (the former Alice Lauritzen) for one, and a very young Miss Ruthellen Sittler for another.

As a matter of fact it is the small Miss Sittler that is taking the bows at the moment. The young lady arrived on Oct. 9 in Lawrence, Kan., where the family now resides. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sittler of Martell, and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen of Weeping Water.

Dinner, Party Are Bridal Courtesies

Entertaining in prenuptial courtesy to their son, Harry Peterson, and his fiancee, Miss Patricia Webb, whose marriage will be an event of Friday, Oct. 18, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Peterson will be host and hostess at dinner next Thursday evening, at the Colonial Inn.

Members of the family and bridal party have been invited to the dinner, which will follow the wedding rehearsal at Sheridan Lutheran Church.

Arriving from out of town for the ceremony, and in time to attend the dinner will be Miss Webb's grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Christy of Jacksonville, N.C., and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Booze of Sandusky, Ohio.

The wedding of Miss Webb, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Webb, and Mr. Peterson will take place at a 7:30 o'clock evening service.

A prenuptial courtesy which will honor a November bride-elect is being planned by Miss Cheryl Wolfe and Miss Mary Gannon, who will entertain Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, for Miss Peggy Arth.

Miss Arth, whose betrothal to Michael Schmieder was revealed recently, has chosen Saturday, Nov. 23, as the date for her wedding. The ceremony will be solemnized at 10 o'clock in the morning, at St. Mary's Church.

Friday Wedding

For the candlelight wedding of Miss Judy Lynn Huetson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Huetson of Cortland, and Roger Spilker, son of Paul Spilker, DeWitt, which took place Friday evening, Oct. 11, bouquets of white chrysanthemums appointed the altar of the United Church of Christ in Cortland. The Rev. Francis R. Turpin read the lines of the 8 o'clock service.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Chamberlain of Houston, Tex., who wore a floor-length frock of silk crepe and velvet in dubonnet. Frocked in olive green were the bridesmaids, Miss Carol Hartzell and Miss Linda Hoffman, Lincoln.

Paul Spilker, Jr., of Cortland, served his brother as best man, and the groomsmen were Steve Packard of Germany; David Spilker and Gerald Pohlmann, DeWitt; Don Huetson, Cortland; and Bob Heist, Lincoln.

The bride appeared in a gown of traditional white satin designed in the skimmer silhouette. Floral appliques of Alencon lace, traced with crystal beading and pearls, accented the cowl neckline and patterned the below-elbow sleeves, and the lace motif was repeated at the scalloped hem and on the panel train. She carried a white satin Bible, a family heirloom, clustered with red roses.

Mr. Spilker and his bride, a former University of Nebraska coed who has been careering in Lincoln, will make their home in DeWitt.

Suburbia Busy With Game Guests

October is quite a month in many respects.

It is distinctive, weather-wise, for it brings autumn in all of that season's beauty while getting us ready for winter with the transitional cold-warm-cold pattern of its days.

October is quite a month on the sports scene, too, for several major sports find October important — it is the month of the World Series for baseball, it is the month of testing for football, and it is the wind-up month before national elections.

October is also quite a month in suburbia, as visitors, picnics, and of course the football fever make the autumn days fly.

For Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Dean Jr. and their family, visitors were the ticket to a week of October enjoyment in Cotner Terrace.

Their guests during the week have been Mr. Dean's brother and sister-in-law and their family of Edwards AFB, Calif. Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Ralph Dean and their children, Scott, Mary, Russell, and Janet are former Lincoln residents, and they are planning another week of sight-seeing before returning to their California home.

Not a few Lincoln homes are filled with Kansas football fans who are here for today's game and also to enjoy the hospitality of their Big Red "foes".

The Northeast Heights home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willemsen is one of the places with football fans galore today and tomorrow — with one unusual difference. Their out-of-state guests are not of the Jayhawk variety.

Their visitors are Mrs. Willemsen's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zitek, and their three youngsters, who make their home in Littleton, Colo.

. . . If you happen to hear someone cheering "Go, Buffs!" this afternoon, you'll know who it is . . . they're just looking ahead.

At 421 Lakewood Dr. in Wedgewood Manor, "October" would seem to be synonymous with "busy". Just ask Mr. and Mrs. Martin Batliner.

Mr. and Mrs. Batliner recently returned from a two-week business-plus-a-little-pleasure trip to Texas and Kansas. Last weekend they welcomed a visitor into their home from Kansas City, Kan. — Mr. Batliner's brother, James Batliner, who has been in Lincoln this week on business. He was joined in Lincoln yesterday by Mrs. Batliner as a guest on Lakewood Drive. The foursome will take in this afternoon's football game and a dinner-dance tonight at Hillcrest.

MISS CAROLYN JEANNE SHEA

Of interest this morning is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. B. Robert Shea of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Jeanne, to Glen E. Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Christensen of Paxton.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, Dec. 28.

Miss Shea is a senior at the University of Nebraska where she is majoring in home economics.

Mr. Christensen is a senior microbiology major in pre-medicine at the University of Nebraska.

Coffee

Mrs. K. Don Bowers, chairman of the Lancaster County Women For Nixon committee, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Van Ashmun as co-chairman. Named city chairman is Mrs. Harold Jacobs.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. Ashmun and Mrs. Jacobs will be hostesses at a coffee to be held at Hillcrest Country Club.

Rendezvous

The Lincoln JayCees and Mrs. JayCees will be hosts and hostesses next Saturday, Oct. 19, at a Big Red Rendezvous, at which they will entertain JayCee members and their wives from throughout the state.

The "rendezvous" will open with a pre-game luncheon, and following the Nebraska-Missouri game, a dinner and dance will be held at the Welfare Hall, 1420 No. 10th.

"Rally" Scheduled

Getting into the swing of a "political year" are the members of Preceptor Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi cultural sorority, who are planning a "political rally" for next Thursday evening.

The members and their guests will meet for a 6:30 o'clock dinner at The Villager, with State Senator Fern Hubbard Orme as a special guest.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Orme will present the "keynote" address and will conduct a political question-and-answer period.

Chapter president, Mrs. Sylvis Koll, will preside, and program chairman is Mrs. David Schessler. Hostesses in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Lawrence M. Welsh and Mrs. Reland Blakesley.

Other officers of the chapter, which meets the third Thursday evening of each month, are Miss Clara Rehn, vice president; Mrs. Harry Pratt, recording secretary; Mrs. Welsh, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Blakesley, treasurer.

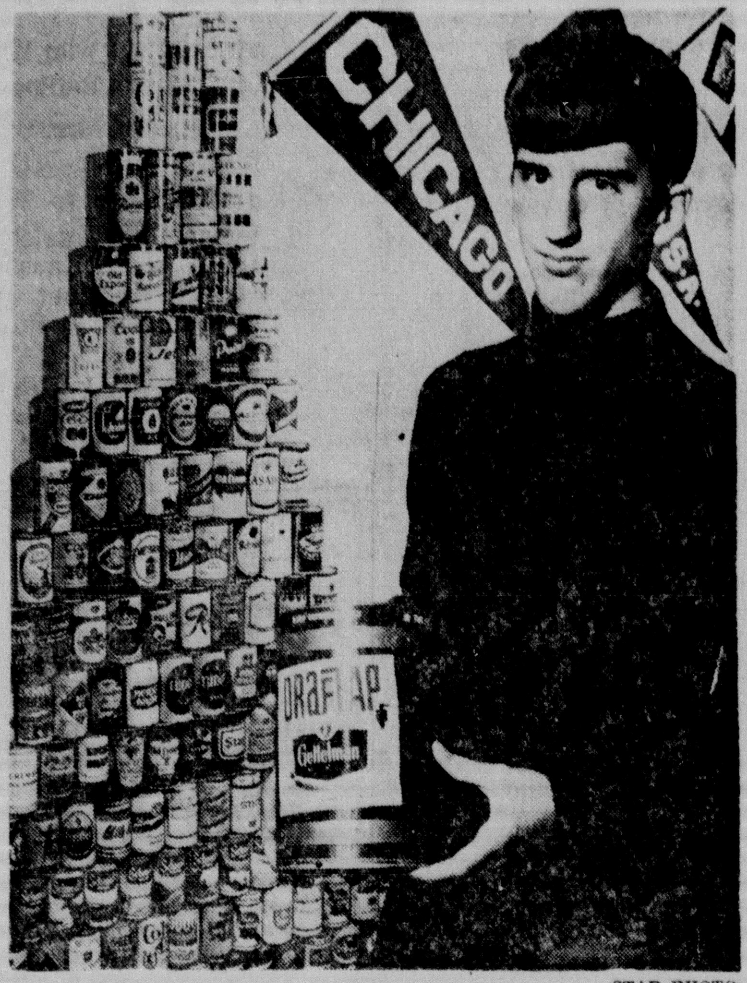
Tim Ernst Leads Busy Life



STAR PHOTO

TIM . . . shows prize of collection

A diversity of activities and ambitions makes a busy life for newspaperboy Tim Ernst, 13, 3650 Vine.

As a collector Tim has accumulated 160 beer cans, including some from Mexico, Canada, England and Holland. His prize is a gallon can that a friend sent to him.

Since he began delivering The Lincoln Star 11 months ago, he has earned enough money to buy a bicycle and to begin repaying his father for the trombone he plays in the school band.

Favorite Subjects

A ninth grader at Lincoln Lutheran junior high school, Tim's favorite subjects are algebra, science and German.

He comes from a family of newspaperboys. Two older brothers, Mike, 21, and Joel, 15, both had newspaper routes. His sisters, Judy, 20, and Becky, 12, have delivered the papers in times of emergency. Tim's father, the Rev. Alfred H. Ernst, is the pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Tim "likes to catch his limit" on family fishing trips. He rejuvenated his father's 30-year-old rifle to go hunting this fall.

"I was disappointed in the World Series," Tim said, "because my favorite teams were playing each other." He plays basketball and football as well as baseball.

Worked On Farm

Last summer Tim worked on a farm in addition to delivering papers, so he had to get up at 5 a.m. and work until 6 p.m.

"Delivering papers teaches you that some people are hard to get along with and others are really nice," Tim says. "Responsibility is the most important benefit of the job."

Newspaperboys from 17 Nebraska dailies will attend Newspaperboy Day Saturday in Lincoln. They will meet Governor Norbert Tiemann in his office and will be guests at a luncheon given by Governor and Mrs. Tiemann at the Mansion.

The boys will attend the University of Nebraska football game after the luncheon.

The annual statewide event coincides with National Newspaperboy Day.

Omahan To Organize Nixon-Agnew Group

Washington—Douglas County Commissioner John McCollister of Omaha has been named organizer of the Nebraska County Officials for Nixon-Agnew Committee.

His appointment was announced by United Citizens for Nixon-Agnew National Chairman Charles Rhyne and Nebraska Citizens Chairman Dr. Robert Palmer.

Labor Dept. Reports Job Placements

Government employment offices over Nebraska placed 6,389 persons on jobs during September, down 21% from placements in the same month last year, the State Labor Department's Division of Employment reported Friday.

Fewer placements on farm jobs accounted almost entirely for the over-all decline, according to Labor Commissioner Thomas D. Doyle.

As of the start of October, 9,100 registered job seekers were counted, or about nine per cent more than the 8,385 counted a year earlier.

New applications for work totaled 5,174 in September, compared with 4,662 in September of last year.

Initial claims for unemployment insurance benefits were down about four per cent from last year but continued claims ran 21% higher. The continued claims reflected a number of layoffs although there was no discernible pattern in specific industries and localities, the division said.

September payments to claimants for unemployment insurance benefits totaled $311,290, compared with $268,714 in September of 1967.

Denver Driver Has Fatal Attack

Gothenburg (AP) — Frank C. Chandler, 67, Denver, Colo., died on Interstate 80, three miles east of here, when he collapsed after changing an auto tire, the State Patrol said.

A trooper said Chandler's car had a tire puncture Thursday and Chandler got out to change the tire. He had gotten back into the car when he suffered the heart attack, the patrol said.

State Nurses Re-Elect Mrs. Hedman To Post

Mrs. Lorraine Hedman of Omaha was re-elected president of the Nebraska Nurses Association (NNA) Friday during its biennial convention here.

Coordinator of in-service training for state institutions in the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute, Mrs. Hedman has held the presidency for the past two years.

NNA first vice president Mrs. Jean Doty of Omaha, assistant administrator of St. Joseph's Hospital, and second vice president Sister Paschala Noonan of McCook, administrator of St. Catherine's Hospital, also were re-elected to two-year terms.

Mrs. Helen Kreiger, a nurse in the Lincoln Public Schools, was elected secretary and Mrs. Frances Kasparek of Grand Island was named treasurer.

NNA directors elected for 1968-70 were Mrs. Freddie Johnson of Omaha, Mrs. Jesse Cain of Omaha, Mrs. Arie Wilson of Scottsbluff, Miss Mary Ellen Boswroth of Nebraska City, Miss Rosellen Connelly of Omaha and Miss Celeste Knipmeyer of Lincoln.

The 225 voting delegates Friday adopted a resolution relinquishing the "right to strike and to use any other measures wherever they may be inconsistent with the professional nurses' responsible to patients."

Some 564 Nebraska nurses attended the three-day convention. Sessions emphasized nurses' involvement in setting standards of nursing practice.

In-service clinical sessions were designed to upgrade the nurses' knowledge in the areas of emphysema, nursing homes, psychiatric and geriatric treatment.

Constitutional changes approved by the organization included a new system of classifying NNA members. Sections of the state body were established by clinical interest areas, rather than by nursing positions.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you.

NOTE-ING THE GAME . . .

Polls, Bowls, Red Coats Blue Coats To Eye Tilt

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

The eyes of the pollsters, bowl officials, a group of ex-Husker stars, 60,000 red coats and 5,500 blue coats will be on Kansas and Nebraska as the two teams meet at 2 p.m. today at Memorial Stadium.

In addition, one of the largest press, radio and TV contingents ever to cover a Nebraska game, other than in a bowl, will be on hand to scrutinize the action.

The 5,500 blue coats represents the number of Jayhawk backers expected for the contest. The wearing of blue is an idea Kansas backers — particularly the KU Alumni Association and Kansas clothing stores — are trying to push, ala the red-clad Husker entourage.

That it isn't likely to be as successful as the Husker Red is was clearly evident last week when only 21,000 turned out in a rainstorm at Lawrence to watch the 68-7 track meet-like victory over New Mexico.

As Odell Hanson, bureau chief for Associated Press in Lincoln, points out, "65,000 Nebraska fans would show up just to see the Huskers model new jerseys."

But the Big Red vs. Big Blue, as Jayhawk backers are calling their team, adds a new color dimension to the neighbor rivalry.

Bowls Here . . .

Bowls being represented are the Orange, Sugar and Liberty.

Ex-Husker greats being represented include members of the Nebraska football teams of the Ernie Bearg era of 1925-28.

Bearg and 18 members of his teams that compiled a 23-7-3 record will be seated on the sidelines at the Husker bench.

They will hold a reunion dinner at the Quality Courts Motel tonight at 6 p.m.

Those planning to attend are Clif Ashburn, Marion Braodstone, Elmer Greenberg, Ted James, Leroy Lucas, Bud McBride, Glenn Munn, Claude Rowley, Clair Sloan, Ed Weir, Joe Weir, Bob Whitmore, Marshall Keyes, Otto Bauman, George Shaner, Felber Maasdam and Elsworth Duteau.

Big Coverage . . .

The news media contingent covering the game includes an ABC-TV camera crew filming for the Sunday NCAA College Football Highlights show, a three-man Sports Illustrated team and the Wall Street Journal.

Papers in the Big Eight area being represented are the Topeka Capital, Kansas City Star, Des Moines Register, Wichita Eagle, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Lawrence Journal-World, Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star, and the Omaha World-Herald.

Radio stations broadcastings are Omaha KFAB, Omaha WOW, Lincoln KLIN, Lincoln KFOR, Lawrence KANU, Topeka WIBW, and Topeka WREN.

Nebraska sports information director Don Bryant says more than 300 people will be involved in the press, radio and TV coverage of the contest.

KU Favored

Among the national pickers, the Huskers are a 3-1 underdog with only Milton Richman of United Press International tabbing Nebraska.

Richman picks "Nebraska to tip over Kansas."

Steve Snider of UPI picks Kansas by 21-14, saying, "Big offense beats this defense."

With Associated Press, Dick Couch picks Kansas, observing, "One vote for Jayhawk quarterback Bob Douglass in this Big Eight archrivalry.

Will Grimsley of Associated Press picks it Kansas 21, Nebraska 15.

Local bookies have Kansas as a 1½-point favorite while in some areas you can get Nebraska and three points.

Also Bands . . .

Both the Nebraska and Kansas bands will perform, Kansas making is first appearance in Memorial Stadium in 20 years. The Nebraska band will salute the University of Nebraska's Centennial year.

—ANDERSON TESTS TIGERS—

Big 8-Leading Buffs Face Mizzou Today

By JOHN HINES
Star Sports Writer

Columbia, Mo. — Quarterback Bob Anderson, the Big Eight's leading offensive performer this season, leads his Colorado mates after their second conference victory of the season when the Missouri Tigers play host to the Buffs at 1:30 p.m. in Memorial Stadium here today.

Anderson has averaged 211.3 total yards a game in three outings and has excellent receivers in end Monte Huber and slotback Mike Pruett, second and sixth in the conference, respectively, in the pass-snagging department.

Stacked against that offensive threat will be the league's top defense. Mizzou has permitted only 67.3 yards a game passing and just 183.7 total yards a game in three starts. The Tiger defense is led by halfback Roger Wehrli, whose 53-yard punt return to Army's nine set up the lone touchdown in Missouri's 7-3 victory a week ago.

A bleeding ulcer kept Wehrli out of the Colorado game a year ago when Wilmer Cooks led a strong ground game that punctured Mizzou for 238 yards rushing and 23 points (23-9 was the score), both season highs against the Tigers.

That vctory followed a 26-0 Colorado win in 1966, the first time the Buffs ever won in 16 tries on Missouri's field. Mizzou leads the all-time series, 21-8-3.

Another Tiger regular will be out of the lineup this year, too, as split end Chuck Weber pulled a hamstring muscle against Army and will be replaced by senior Jim Juras. Bill Schmitt, veteran defensive end out since the Kentucky opener with a dislocated elbow, returns to action today.

Missouri's backfield will have two new faces, tailback Greg Cook and wingback Jon Staggers.

Only Colorado regular not making the trip here is defensive tackle Dave Capra, out with a knee injury. He will be replaced by junior Frank Conrad. The Buffs' offensive interior features another all-American candate on the field in addition to Wehrli, 259-pound left tackle Mike Montler.

The Buffs started with a 28-7 victory over Oregon before losing to California, 10-0. However, they rebounded for a 28-18 win at Iowa State in their loop lidlifter last Saturday.

Missouri fell upset victim to Kentucky, 12-6, in its season opener but then shellacked Illinois, 44-0, before matching Colorado's 2-1 slate with the squeaker over Army.

Wesleyan Edged In 7-6 Contest

. . . VIKINGS' FIRST TD

The Dana Vikings broke an eight-game losing streak stretching back to 1958 when they edged Nebraska Wesleyan, 7-6, Friday night in a bruising encounter at O.N. Magee Stadium.

Dana scored its lone touchdown late in the second period after recovering an NWU fumble by Plainsman halfback Rick Shibata on the three-yard line.

It was the first TD of the year for Grant Wall's Vikings after being blanked four straight times this season. Mike Krivokucha, a 190-pound sophomore end, snatched up the loose ball and on the first offensive play, quarterback Kirk McLaughlin sneaked over.

Dana had driven 64 yards in 15 plays, only to give up the pigskin on the five on a fourth down incompleted pass in the end zone.

After the Plainsmen took over, Shibata lost a yard to the four, then fumbled and the Vikings struck for six points. Dan Jackson, a 200-pound sophomore end kicked what proved to be the winning point.

Wesleyan scored with 6:10 to play in the third period after Tom Brown and Steve McKelvey took turns at quarterback to direct an 83-yard, 14-play drive which culminated with an eight-yard TD pass by McKelvey to Keith Maurer.

Roger Sand, however, missed the placement try and the Plainsmen were down a point and stayed there despite numerous offensive threats later in the game.

NWU drove to the Dana 17 early in the fourth quarter, but a running play on fourth down with short yardage lost 13 and the drive sputtered. The Plainsmen again drove to the Viking 31 on the next series, but gave up the ball on downs.

Wesleyan had the edge in total yardage, 238-215, but three intercepted passes hurt them. The Plainsmen defensive secondary turned in its finest game of the year, as the Vikings managed only two yards through the air.

Dana is now 1-4 on the season with Midland as its next opponent. Wesleyan is also 1-4 and tangles with Missouri Valley next weekend.

Links Blank Rockets, 21-0

Lincoln High posted a 14-point first half lead and capped it with a 95-yard scoring drive in the fourth period to roll to a 21-0 victory over intra-city foe Northeast Saturday night at Seacrest Field before 7,747 fans.

The Links, playing one of their best games of the season, used a tough defense and a strong offensive line in chalking up the victory.

The first half of play was all Lincoln High as it contained the Northeast running attack on the outside forcing the Rockets inside and the middle of the line cut them down.

Lincoln High, meanwhlie, turned loose the running of Stan Johnston and Mike Shea to boost it into a comfortabe halftime margin of 14-0.

Late in the first period, Chuck Sinclair fumbled the ball on the Lincoln High 33 and Ron Peery moved in from his right end spot to pounce on it and give the ball to the Links in good field position.

Johnston bucked left for a 14-yard gain and Jim Schriner carried for 10 yards setting up a first and goal at the five. Johnston then went up the middle for two more before moving in from the two for the first TD and Shea's point after was good giving the Links a 7-0 margin with 3:57 remaining in the first quarter.

After taking over on their own 35 yard line late in the second period, the Links again began a march to the goal line. Quarterback Gary Worster picked up seven yards to the 28 and Johnston put the Links in striking distance at the 11 after a 17-yard gain.

Johnston took the ball on the third play of the drive and moved to the one before fumbling the ball in the end zone. Right guard Jed Vitamvas threw himself on it and Lincoln High had its second touchdown with 3:29 to go in the second stanza. Shea again split the uprights and it was 14-0.

Northeast made a real threat just before the half as Tom Novak took over at quarterback from Sinclair, who went out with a hip injury, and directed the Rockets to two first downs and within seeing distance of the goal line before Northeast faltered.

The third quarter was a draw but the fourth was one Northeast would just as soon forget.

The Rockets started the fourth quarter on their 48 and ended up there after four plays and no gain. A punt put the Links on their own 22 and two holding penalties moved them back to the six.

Lincoln High then proceeded to march 94 yards in 22 plays for the touchdown with Gary King pushing it over from the one with one minute to go in the game. The drive used 8:50 of the clock and the Rockets were helpless.

Shea's extra point completed the scoring and the fourth rated Links had their fourth win on the season against one tie—a 13-13 battle with Hastings.

Second-Ranked Fremont Tops Thunderbolts By 35-13 Count

Fremont — The second-rated Fremont Tigers paced by the running of Jon Strong and the passing of Gary Cox overpowered Lincoln's Pius X by a 35-13 count here Friday night.

Strong scored three touchdowns for the Tigers while compiling 98 yards total offense, 83 of which he rolled up on the ground. He scored on one and 20-yard runs and gathered in a 15-yard pass from Cox for his other tally.

Quarterback Cox directed the Fremont attack to perfection throughout the game. Besides his toss to Strong, Cox also connected with Tom Anderson for an eight-yard score.

Trailing 28-0 at intermission, Pius rallied its forces behind Dennis Shibata to come back for 13 points in the second half. Shibata scored twice and gained 114 yards total offense. A 41-yard touchdown pass from Gary Walker accounted for his passing yardage leaving 73 yards for rushing yardage including a 10-yard scoring scamper.

Fremont looks like a sure thing to hold the second spot in Class A, hiking its record to 5-0 while the Class B Thunderbolts now own a 2-3 mark, with all its competition coming from Class A schools.

Lincoln East Shuts Out Beatrice For Second Win

Beatrice — The East High Spartans won their second football game of the year Friday night when they blanked Beatrice, 21-0.

The East offense utilized near-perfect balance between the run and the pass, totalling 159 yards on the ground and 130 through the air.

Senior halfback Bruce Northrop opened and closed scoring for East. His two-yard run in the second period was set up by a 48-yard pass from quarterback Barry Blue to Tony Contreras. Northrop's second TD came on a 69-yard dash in the fourth quarter.

Blue's sharp passing complemented the Spartan running game. The junior signal-caller connected on eight of 12 aerials, including a 22-yard touchdown pass to Pat Gibbons.

Tony Contreras was Blue's favorite target, however, as he hauled in six passes for 103 yards.

The Orangemen outyarded the Spartans on the ground but were unable to muster a consistent passing threat. They were also hurt by 105 yards in penalty assessments. They were on the East one-yard line when the game ended.

Beatrice's deepest penetration to that point came when they reached the Spartan 10-yard line in the fourth quarter but the East defense met the test. The losers lost a potential touchdown in the first quarter when defensive halfback Bob Abbott knocked down a pass.

The win improved East's record to 2-3. Their first victory of the season came against Hastings and next week they meet another out-state foe in Columbus.

Olympics Open Today

Mexico City (AP) Mexico City, calm but under heavy guard, and gaily bedecked, stood ready Friday to give an enthusiastic welcome to the opening of the Olympic Games Saturday — first ever held in a Latin-American nation.

The riots and disturbances have subsided. The government has made it plain it will put up with no disorders. The 7,500 athletes from 124 nations — an Olympic record — are ready to go.

The first defection of the Games has occurred. Juan Antonio Diaz Campos, a Cuban tennis player due to appear in an exhibition here, asked for asylum, the interior ministry announced. It was granted. More defections may come.

Meanwhile confidence mounted in the United States camp that these Games could bring the greatest medal harvest of modern times, and possibly re-setablish the overall athletic supremacy of America over Russia.

Hurricanes Stun LSU

Miami, Fla. (AP) — Miami's Hurricanes battered eight-ranked Louisiana State out of football's unbeaten ranks 30-0 Friday night with pinpoint passing by David Olivo, a perfect kicking performance by Jim Huff and a brawling defense that never let the Tigers get away.

A series of big defensive plays held off the hard-charging Tigers in the first half as Miami moved to a 6-0 lead on field goals of 24 and 37 yards by Huff.

Then the roof fell in on favored LSU as the Hurricanes scored 17 points in the third period to break a Tiger winning streak for the second time in two seasons.

Soccer-Style Kicker Dumps Top-Rated Omaha Tech, 10-6

. . . WESTSIDE PULLS UPSET

By VIRGIL PARKER
Prep Sports Writer

Omaha — Capitalizing on a break early in the game and using the soccer-style kicking of a field goal specialist, Omaha Westside dumped No. 1 rated Omaha Tech, 10-6, at Bergquist Stadium here Friday night.

Containing Tech's highly publicized "R & R" boys — speedsters Johnny Rodgers and John Ray — Westside actually made a tally scored the second time the Warriors had the ball stand up for the victory.

Tech quarterback Paul Griego, making pitchouts all night like he was throwing the proverbial hot potato with the wrong hand, fired one high and outside intended for Ray back on the Tech 15.

Westside's Russ Volberding scooped it up on the first bounce and rambled on into the end zone for the score with 7:07 left in the first quarter.

Hugh Tobin, who spent the last two years in Amsterdam playing soccer while his physician-father was in Holland doing some research, thumped it through with the side of his foot to make it 7-0.

Billed as the two most explosive offensive teams in the Metro Omaha area, Tech managed just four first downs and 44 yards to Westside's two and 32 through the entire first half.

In the fourth quarter the Warriors moved the length of the field to the Tech nine. On fourth down, Tobin sailed a 29-yard field goal through the uprights to ice the contest. Westisde led 10-0 with just 4:34 left.

Tech came back for its lone tally in just two plays, but it was too little, too late. Griego hit Bill Newby on a 40-yard pass and run play, and Larry Travis then bulled in from the four to score.

The Techmen got the ball once more with 1:37 left, made three first downs on senational pass grabs by Newby and Ray and a game ending run by Rodgers, but couldn't close the gap.

Tech is now 4-1 on the season, while Westside, tied by Bellevue, leads the Metro circuit with a 4-0-1 record.

W. Virginia Wins In Final Minutes

Roanoke, Va. (AP) — Heavily favored West Virginia rode sophomore Mike Sherwood's passes to two touchdowns in a five-minute span of the second period Friday night and then survived many an offensive misfire for a 14-7 football victory over Virginia Military Institute.

Shocked when VMI went ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter after recovering a fumbled punt, the Mountaineers swept to touchdowns on drives of 80 and 49 yards the next two times they had possession. But after that, they could never penetrate the VMI defense for another touchdown.

Chicago — Pit Stop, co-owned by Mrs. W. C. Eddy of Lincoln, was third in the second division of the Oil Capital Handicap at Hawthorne Park here Friday.

The race was won by Sparkling Native with a 1:23 1-5 clocking for the seven furlongs. Lithiot was second. The first division was won by Man O'Arms, followed by Clean Issue and Master Bold.

King Named SF Manager

San Francisco (AP) — Clyde King, a dark-haired, near-sighted ex-pitcher with a North Carolina drawl, was named manager of the San Francisco Giants Friday, replacing Herman Franks.

Giants owner Horace Stoneham introduced King at a news conference at Candlestick Park where the new manager said, "I hope we can launch the 1969 baseball season as successfully as they launched Apollo 7."

King, 43, managed the Giants' Phoenix Farm club to a third place finish last season in his ninth year as a minor-league manager. He was a pitcher with the Brooklyn Dodgers and several minor-league clubs before that, but said managing always was his main goal.

Cards Obtain Pinson, Giusti In 2 Swaps

St. Louis (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals obtained veteran outfielder Vada Pinson from the Cincinnati Reds Friday to replace Roger Maris, who retired after the seventh game of the World Series Thursday.

The Cardinals traded utility man Bob Tolan and relief pitcher Wayne Granger to the Reds for Pinson.

A few hours earlier, the Cardinals confirmed they had traded catchers John Edwards and Tom Smith to the Houston Astros for catcher Dave Adlesh and pitcher Dave Giusti.

No cash was involved in the deals.

Pinson, coupled with Lou Brock and Curt Flood, will give the Cardinals perhaps the speediest outfield in baseball.

Injured Waiver List For Powers, Hawkins

Oakland (AP) — The Oakland Raiders placed guard Wayne Hawkins and safety Warren Powers of Nebraska on the injured waivered list Friday and reactivated safety Rodger Bird and running back Preston Ridlehuber.

Hawkins and Powers were injured in an early season game and Coach John Rauch had hoped they would be ready to play against San Diego here Sunday. But they have not responded to therapy as quickly as had been hoped.

Bob Charles KO's Palmer's Title Bid

. . . ARNIE FALLS, 7 AND 6

Virginia Water, England (AP) —Bob Charles, a lefthander from England, and 24-year-old Tony Jacklin from England smashed the American golf circuit dominance at the fifth annual World Match Play Championship Friday.

Charles defeated Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., two-time winner of the title, 7 and 6 over the 36 holes in the first of the two semi-finals.

Jacklin, winner of $60,000 in his first year's try in the U.S., shook up Gary Player of South Africa, also a two-time winner of this crown. He carried Player 36 holes to a draw.

Jacklin and Player had to quit finally when darkness settled over the 6,997 yards, par 74 Wentworth Course. They will play off sudden death Saturday morning, and the 36-hole final between the winner of their match and Charles proceeds after that.

Eliminated in this rapid three-day match-play — the only one left in the world — were Palmer, Bill Casper, reining U.S. money winner, Peter Thomson of Australia, U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino and Brian Huggett of Walles.

Play over the rain-soaked course was a hard test for all of them. Charles beat Palmer by knocking his irons closer to the pin, which gave him a chance to get a putt down. He went seven up in the morning round and did it with 29 putts against Palmer's 35.

The rain belted down so hard around noon that the Player-Jacklin semifinal was halted on the 18th hole to be resumed after lunch.

Charles had the best round of the day, a four-under-par 70 in the morning which simply swamped Palmer, who had a 78.

Home Festivities For Bob Gibson Delayed A Day

Omaha (AP) — The 'Welcome-home'' festivities for Bob Gibson will be next Friday instead of Thursday, the Chamber of Commerce announced Friday.

Originally the recognition ceremony for the St. Louis Cardinal pitching star had been set for Thursday on the Douglas County Courthouse lawn to be followed by a luncheon at the Omaha City Auditorium.

But Gibson advised officials Friday that prior commitments will prevent him from arriving here Thursday.

The auditorium will not be available next Friday, so the luncheon was cancelled. The courthouse ceremony will be held at 11:45 a.m. Friday.

Nebraska Harriers Open Season Today

The Nebraska cross country team will open the 1968 season by hosting Kansas State today.

The meet, scheduled to commence at 10:30 a.m., will be held in Pioneers Park. Start and finish of the three mile course will be the train station.

Martin New Twins Pilot

Minneapolis-St. Paul (AP) — Billy Martin, a hotheaded and aggressive major league infield star with the New York Yankees in the 1950s, was named Friday as Manager of the Minnesota Twins baseball team.

Promising hustle from his players and "whatever it takes to win," Martin puffed on a cigar when introduced at a news conference by Twins' President Calvin Griffith as his choice to succeed Cal Ermer.

Griffith said, the Twins "are mighty happy to have Billy to make players hustle."

Martin, 40, in the Twins' organization since 1961 when he wound up his 12-year major league playing career, inherits a team that finished in seventh place in the American League 24 games behind first-place Detroit.

Rocket Netters Top Links, 3-2

Northeast won two of three singles matches to clip Lincoln High 3-2 in a tennis match Friday at Lincoln High.

The Links Steve Holroyd was the only double winner as he won his singles match and teamed with Dave Webb to post a doubles victory.

Decision Seen Today On Site Of Track Meet

The Nebraska School Activities Association Board of Control has set a meeting for Saturday morning at which time "the site for next spring's state high school track meet will be seriously discussed and may be determined," according to association secretary C. C. Thompson.

Preliminary discussion on the problem during the September meeting was delayed so that all the facts could be received before a decision was made.

Bids to hold the meet have been received from Kearney State, host for the championships four times in the past five years, the University of Nebraska, where the meet had always been held in the past until the move to Kearney, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and Grand Island High School, which boasts a new all-weather track.

Kearney State points to experienced volunteer people and a history of smooth running meets as its reason for retaining the event. Poor visibility for the fans caused the original discussion on a possible move.

Omaha's bid is based on a new fieldhouse, adequate stands and plenty of housing in the area for all the teams, while Husker campus officials hope for a return of the meet to the original site where it was held successfully for so many years.

Bluejay Cagers Begin Practice Dates Tuesday

Omaha (UPI) —Coach Red McManus will unveil his 1968 Bluejay basketball squad to photographers Monday afternoon in the Creighton gym. Practice sessions begin Tuesday.

Creighton's pre-season roster has 17 candidates, including all-American forward Bob Portman. Wally Anderzunas, 6-7½ cornerman, is back for his senior year along with back court star Dave Hickey, 5-11.

Other lettermen returning are Jack Ilcisin, 6-3 senior; Steve Jansa, 6-7 senior, and Jack Ketterer, 6-0 junior. Brendan Balen, 6-3, and Gene Pace, 6-7, are returning squad members.

Creighton opens at home on Nov. 30 against Wichita State.

Hunting Clock

The following applies to any point in Nebraska that is due north or due south of each of the cities and towns. For each 13 miles west of any designated city add one minute, and for each 13 miles east subtract one minute. Valentine and Scottsbluff schedules are Mountain Daylight Time. All others are Central Daylight Time. Hunters should set their watches according to the time zone in which they are hunting.

—VISITORS WIN, 12-6—

Syracuse's Ground Game Wins, 12-6

By CRAIG CALLAWAY
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Waverly —With both teams sticking chiefly to the ground attack and playing pad-popping defense, the Syracuse Rockets beat the Waverly Vikings, 12-6, in Class B competition here Friday night.

"We'll stick with the ground game," Rocket coach Ron Wagner said before the game, "that's been our best." It was, as the Rockets rolled up 230 yards on the ground, along with 43 in the air for a total 273 yards. Waverly got only 19 running and 30 through the air for 49 total.

Waverly looked better defensively throughout the game, however, than the disparity in ground gain would indicate, but heavily felt the second half loss of standout tackle Bob Winter, who was bruised early in the third period and saw only sparse action the remainder of the game.

All scoring was done in the second and third quarters, with the defensive game dominating the opening and closing periods. In the fourth, each team drove to within the opponent's 10-yard line and had four downs to score, but defensive efforts held.

Senior back Gary Spicer carried the ball seven yards for the opening Syracuse score in the second quarter.

In the third, junior Larry Hill broke away from two tacklers and romped 33 yards for the second Syracuse tally.

Later in that period, Waverly's Vern Rosemboom intercepted a Dick Morrissey pass attempt and went 58 yards for the lone Viking touchdown. All extra-point attempts failed.

The win made the Syracuse record 4-1 for the season and the loss brought the year's record for Waverly to 2-2-1.

Syracuse	0	6	6	0	—12
Waverly	0	0	6	0	— 6

Syracuse—Spicer, 7 run; Hill, 33 run.
Waverly—Rosemboom, 58 run on interception.

Schoendienst, Mayo Honored

New York (AP) — Mayo Smith, who engineered Detroit to its first American League pennant in 23 years, and Red Schoendienst, who directed St. Louis to its second straight National League crown, were named Managers of the Year Friday in the annual Associated press poll.

It was the second straight year Schoendienst won the award in the balloting by the nation's sports writers and sportscasters while Smith succeeded Boston's Dick Williams in the AL.

Smith received 135 votes to 28 for runner-up Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees. Schoendienst also easily outpolled his nearest rival, getting 129 votes to 36 for Leo Durocher of the Chicago Cubs.

The 53-year-old Smith wins the award after his second year with the Tigers. He managed the Philadelphia Phillies from 1955 through July 22, 1958, then served half the 1959 season as manager of Cincinnati.

Iowa Woman Bowler Rolls Record 818 Set

South Sioux City, Neb. (AP)—Bev Orter made bowling history Thursday night with an 818 series—the highest three-game series ever bowled by a woman in the United States.

The Galva, Iowa, woman shattered the previous record score of 792 held jointly by three women.

Miss Ortner's scores were 267, 264 and 287.

Purdue Rates 2 TD Choice Over 4th-Ranked Ohio State

. . . SPOTLIGHT TO BE ON LINCOLN TOO

A versatile sophomore quarterback will get a chance Saturday to become King Rex of Ohio State football when he leads the Buckeyes against the Purdue Boilermakers, the nation's top-ranked team.

And Rex Kern will certainly be considered royalty by Ohio State fans if he can spark the fourth-ranked Buckeyes past Leroy Keyes and the Boilermakers, who rate as two-touchdown favorites.

The game between the two unbeaten Big Ten Conference Powers at Columbus, Ohio, highlights a schedule that sees nine of the Top Ten teams in action.

In other games, No. 2 ranked Southern California is at home against tough Stanford, No. 3 Penn State plays at UCLA, fifth-ranked Notre Dame hosts Northwestern, No. 6 Kansas takes the road to meet No. 9 Nebraska, seventh-rated Florida entertains Tulane and No. 10 Tennessee is at Georgia Tech.

Notre Dame and Florida are expected to have the easiest time.

Eighth-ranked Louisiana played Miami in Florida Friday night.

Ohio State will be spurred on by the memory of last year's 41-6 trouncing by Purdue, but it will take more than memory to stop Keyes who has rushed for 244 yards and six touchdowns, caught 15 passes for 173 yards and completed three of five passes for 68 yards and two touchdowns.

While the Buckeye defense is concentrating on stopping Keyes and his mates, the offense will be counting on Kern, fullback Jim Otis and halfback Dave Brungard. Kern has run 26 times for 99 yards and completed 19 of 33 passes for 252 yards and two touchdowns. Otis has run for 165 yards in 35 tries, and Brungard has picked up 173 yards on 32 attempts.

"He's only human and can be stopped," says Stanford linebacker Don Parrish.

He, of course, was referring to Southern California's O. J. Simpson. And if the Indians do stop Simpson, they probably will stop Southern Cal. But no one has yet.

Simpson has run for almost 200 yards in each of the Trojans' first three games and has scored nine touchdowns.

Stanford has a pretty fair offensive weapon of its own in sophomore quarterback Jim Plunkett who ranks ninth in the nation in total offense. He also has thrown nine touchdown passes for the 3-0 Indians.

The Kansas and Nebraska game not only involved two 3-0 records and national ranking, it also is a contest that should go a long way in deciding the Big Eight champion.

Kansas goes into the game with an offense that has produced 51 points a game. Nebraska's defense has allowed but eight points a contest, second best in the nation.

Unbeaten Penn State, which also counts heavily on defense, finds itself in the role of underdog against UCLA,

Fairbury Whips Wentworth, 37-7

Lexington, Mo. (AP) — Fairbury Junior College's freshman quarterback Bob Gill completed seven of 13 pass attempts for five touchdowns as Fairbury routed the football squad from Wentworth Military Academy 37-7 here Friday night.

A pass play and the running of freshman tailback Charles Moore accounted for Fairbury's share of its 12-7 half time lead.

Wentworth's tally came on a seven yard fourth pass play after they had been held for two downs on the two foot line and were then thrown for a seven yard loss.

But Gill unlimbered for four more scoring passes in the second half of three, 14, 24 and 44 yards as Wentworth remained dormant for the remainder of the game.

Concordia also beat Dana in dual competition, 27-28. Individual winners over the hilly, three-mile course was Ron Bork of Concordia, who clocked a 17:05.

Top Ten Finishers

1. Bork, Concordia, 17:05; 2. Knehans, Dana; 3. Duncan, Wesleyan; 4. Glock, Dana; 5. Rystrom, Wesleyan; 6. Nordeen, Wesleyan; 7. Moran, Dana; 8. Trook, Wesleyan; 9. Ebendick, Concordia; 10. McVay, Wesleyan.

Only Two Schools Given 'Hardship' Rating To Prevent Cut In State Aid

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The State Board of Education Friday denied the applications of 50 school districts for "hardship" relief under the state's school aid law.

Only two districts were approved for a state aid share in spite of the fact their cost per pupil increased beyond the legal limit of eight per cent.

State school aid statutes provide for reducing state aid to schools which exceed the eight per cent increase in per pupil costs unless the state board grants a hardship waiver.

Approved was the $980 claim of Buffalo County School District 16 because its schoolhouse was struck by lightning and burned last April.

Also okayed was $15,136 in state aid to the Meridian Public Schools because of financial difficulties resulting from district reorganization to include Tobias, Daykin and Alexandria.

The district said normal 12-month expenditures were compressed into 10 months by the reorganization move.

Westside Denied

Denied by the board, with Chairman Norman Otto of Omaha dissenting, was the "hardship" claim of Omaha Community Schools, which asked for $31,565 more than the computed share of $798,146 under the state aid formula.

Westside Schools officials said "increased intensity in civil disorders" in the Omaha area had necessitated additional security personnel to protect school property and more teachers for "emotionally disturbed or disruptive" students.

However, board members voting for denial said it was the police department's duty to furnish protection for the schools, not the school board's.

The department said 122 of the state's 1,600 school districts had submitted hardship claims, but all but 53 later withdrew them.

Atkinson was slated to be among those hardship claims considered, but it withdrew at the last minute.

'Not Included'

I "reluctantly" denying the claims of 49 districts, the board said increased costs expended by the districts to "catch up" with new state accreditation standards "could not be fitted into the hardship provisions of the state aid bill."

Bord member Robert G. Simmons of Scottsbluff said the state aid law "has deficiencies in it but these should be worked out with the Legislature next session."

"Pinch-penny districts that are now having to catch up with accreditation standards are somewhat penalized," he said. "I would like to give these districts some relief, but the board can't under the law's provisions."

Other districts whose hardship claims were denied:

Ansley, Arapahoe, Aurora, Bancroft, Bartley, Beaver City, Benedict, Bradshaw, Callaway, Chambers, Chappell, Columbus, Cozad, Craig, Deshler, Franklin, Genoa, Gordon Perkins County High (Grant), Hay Springs, Holbrook, Holdrege, Imperial Grade School, Lodgepole, Loomis, Milford, Milligan, Newcastle, Norris (Hickman), North Platte, Osceola, Pender, Potter, Ravenna, Red Willow (McCook), Shickley, South Sioux City, Sumner-Eddyville-Miller, Superior, Syracuse-Dunbar, Tri-County (DeWitt), Trumbull, Wausa, Winside, Cass County District No. 56, Frontier County No. 70, Franklin County No. 20, Nance County No. 49 and Scotts Bluff County No. 13.

Unit firms division chairman John Haessler reported a total of $85,918 or 16% of his division goal of $540,700.

The first in this division to complete solicitation was the General Tobacco Co. with $1,701. Other unit firms which have finished collections are Bryan Memorial Hospital, $5,400; DeBrown Auto, $890; DuTeau Chevrolet, $2,816; Fairmont Foods, $1,950; Lincoln Liberty Life, $3,691; Lincoln Mutual Life, $2,299; Miller and Paine, $24,300; Mowbray Buck, $750; Goodrich Foods, $1,930; Sanitary Towel, $327; First National Bank and Trust Co., $34,732, and Nebraska Litho Co., $731.

Special gifts division, which began solicitation a month ago, reported a total of $104,645 or 57% of its $184,600 goal.

A total of $1,659 or 11% of the total of $15,000 for the women's division was reported by Mrs. Max Schuster.

The next report meeting will be held next Friday.

Centennial Workers Are Asked To Help Save Income Tax Law

County chairmen and workers who helped organize Nebraska's 1967 centennial celebration are being asked to spearhead the drive to save Nebraska's state income tax law.

Don Shriner of Lincoln, who directed the statewide centennial festivities, made the request in a letter to county centennial chairmen, their secretaries and other centennial workers.

Shriner is currently serving as chairman of the steering committee for a pro-income tax organization formed in Lincoln last week.

'More Important'

"It is my personal belief that an issue now faces us which is even more important than the entire centennial — an issue which can wipe out all of our efforts, an issue which can set us back a number of years instead of enabling us to go forward," Shriner wrote.

"This issue is the preservation of our fine, equitable tax system now in effect.

"It is my feeling some do not totally understand the present system and how fair and equitable it is. They seemingly do not understand the alternatives if we vote out the income tax."

Shriner asked centennial workers to indicate to him whether they are willing to join the pro-income tax team.

'Need Help'

"I need your fine and valuable assistance in your community and county," he noted.

"We will need means of distributing a pamphlet. We will need assistance in setting up local speakers bureaus. We'll need contact people who can and will get to all groups.

"Simply put, we need you."

'All The Facts'

Shriner said the organization will "present all of the facts" on Nebraska's tax system to the people even if the State Supreme Court should remove the income tax issue from the general election ballot.

"Opposition forces might well find some other technicality or means of bringing the issue up again," he said. "So let's go all the way in our educational program now."

The court is now considering the sufficiency of petitions to force a vote on a constitutional amendment to prohibit the state from levying an income tax.

768 Students Attending NU With Assistance Of GI Bill

Seven hundred and sixty-eight students, many of them Vietnam war veterans, are attending the University of Nebraska this fal with the assistance of the post-Korean War GI Bill.

An estimated 4,100 veterans, about 2,300 of them in higher education, are enrolled this fall in eduation and training in Nebraska under the GI Bill, according to the Veterans Administration. Nationally, about 523,000 post-Korean War veterans are enrolled in education and training programs under the GI Bill.

During the second semester last year, the university had 702 students enrolled under the GI Bill, according to the University Veterans Affairs Office.

The larger number of GIs enrolled this year, both at the university and nationaly, is the highest fall enrollment since the post-Korean War GI Bill went into effect in 1966. This increase reflects a growing flow of returning veterans from the Southeast Asian conflict.

The University Veterans Affairs Office also notes that there are six servicemen enrolled in classes under the military's Boot Strap program; 91 studens who receive benefits as war orphans; 150 students who receive benefits because a parent was disabled while in service, and 24 students who receive benefits as servicemen discharged because of disability.

Under the GI Bill, veterans are granted a basic $130 per month for up to 36 months, with additional sums if they have dependents.

Active Weekend Is Planned For Campaign For Biafrans

Several hundred University of Nebraska students and faculty as well as area high school students will play active roles in raising funds this weekend for the Keep Biafrans Alive campaign.

The campaign, which has a goal of $10,000, is being directed by students and faculty at the university, according to Dr. Dale Mesner, professor of mathematics and chairman of the coordinating committee.

Student volunteers will collect funds on downtown and campus streets before and after the Nebaska-Kansas football game Saturday. Many area high school students are planning to collect funds at football games this weekend.

Smith Hall, a women's residence hall at the university, sponsored a dance Friday evening with all proceeds going to the Keep Biafrans Alive fund.

Nineteen fraternities and 13 sororities at the Universty plan to skip two evening meals this weekend and donate the anticipated $2,000 to the campaign.

Members of residence halls also have signed up to skip their Monday evening meal in an effort organized by the Inter-Dormitory Associaton at the University.

Rudolph Roberts, University graduate student and captain of the Liberian Davis Cup Team, will hold two tennis clinics ths week wth voluntary contributions going to the Biafran fund drive.

Students will decide at a later date whether the campaign will be included in the All-University Fund charity.

Hearing Slated On Standards For Bus Safety

The State Board of Education Friday scheduled a public hearing for Nov. 6 on proposed revised minimum safety equipment standards for school buses.

Jerry McCall of the Department of Education said the revised state standards would meet new federal standards for bus safety equipment that go into effect next Jan. 1.

McCall said the new regulations, if adopted, would cover an estimated 2,100 school buses in the state transporting some 60,000 students daily.

Supporting the new standards were the Nebraska School Bus Transportation Supervisors Association and the Nebraska State Patrol.

Rural-Urban Ties Cited By Official

The State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service annual conference ended here Friday with about 900 ASCS personnel being told that in the future urban residents would be paying closer attention to agriculture.

Charles L. Frazier of Washington, D.C., assistan deputy administrator of state and county ASCS activities, said, "A number of mayors of large cities are calling for the understanding and support of farm people because they believe the same member of Congress who will stand up and vote for a strong farm program will also vote for programs needed in the city."

Frazier said farm people ought to stop worrying about which presidential candidate will be better able to keep order in the large urban centers.

"The plain answer, sweeping emotionalism aside, is that there isn't much any president can do about it. And any candidate who bases all or a large part of his appeal to the electorate on this issue is a phony, said Frazier.

NU BUILDING STILL INTACT AFTER 'FLOOD'

A University of Nebraska building escaped serious damage Friday after construction workers accidentally flooded an unfinished section of the building's third floor, Lincoln fire officials reported.

A fire department spokesman said the workers, using a tractor for remodeling work on the third floor of Nebraska Hall, 901 No. 17th, accidentally triggered the floor's sprinkling system.

Firemen put the system back into order and kept the water from damaging finished sections of the building, fire officials said.

'Education Not Preparing For Life—It Is Life Itself'

"Education isn't a preparation for life — it's life itself," the director of Wisconsin's parole and probation department told Nebraska adult probation officers here Friday.

Delmar M. Huebner, addressing a noon luncheon of the probation officers' two-day conference, told the group that training was a provocative and important part of the profession.

But training "is a two-way street," he stressed.

'Trying To Learn'

"I don't think I can ever quit trying to learn something new," he said.

The probation officers wound up their meetings with a summary workshop Friday afternoon.

Earlier Friday, Lancaster District Judge Bartlett E. Boyles had addressed the group on approaches to the alcoholic probationer.

"Before you set up a training program," Huebner said, "find out what you have and what you don't have."

The probationer officer's "job" is clear, he said.

"But where are we going? What are we doing?"

Huebner also urged greater exchange of ideas and approaches between the midwest area states.

"I've been inspired just sitting in on your discussions here," he told the group.

Faubus To Speak At Omaha Dinner For Third Party

Omaha (AP) — Former Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus will be the principal speaker at a fund-raising dinner at Peony Park Oct. 24 for third party presidential candidate George Wallace.

Dr. George Byrd, chairman of the Nebraska Wallace campaign, said Friday the $25-a-plate dinner will be served at 7 p.m.

Dr. Byrd said a film of Wallace speaking previously in Nebraska will be shown.

Judge Postpones Slated Arguments On Discount Rule

Lancaster District Judge Bartlett Boyles Friday postponed until Oct. 18 arguments on a temporary injunction sought to bar the State Liquor Control Commission from enforcing its recent rule forbidding liquor discounts.

Two suits, filed by State Sen. Terry Carpenter and by Central Market, Inc., of Omaha and Joe Shampenier, a Hastings liquor store owner, challenge the commission's rule forbidding the granting of discounts by liquor wholesalers to retail stores.

Both suits asked the court to throw out the commission ruling.

They also asked the court to issue a temporary injunction barring enforcement of the rule until a final settlement is made of the legal questions involved.

Arguments on the temporary injunction were originally scheduled to be heard Friday.

House Demo Accuses GOP Of Part In Oil Bribe Attempt

© New York Times Service

Washington — Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., accused three oil company executives Friday night of seeking to "bribe" him to head off his opposition to a major oil project in Maine.

He said three men from the Occidental Petroleum Corp. and its subsidiary, the Hooker Chemical Corp., sought to keep him from appearing at a hearing in Portland, Maine, on the state's application for creation of a foreign trade zone where Occidental Oil would build a refinery.

"There is no doubt in my mind that Republican politics is mixed up in this," Boggs said. He complained that house Republicans had not permitted him to speak on the House floor of a meeting with the oil executives.

News Conference

Boggs, who is Democratic whip, held a news conference in his office after he was cut off on the House floor by a Republican call for a quorum.

Boggs said there was no question in his mind that the oil executives had violated federal law. He said he was turning his material over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The three oil men, he said, met with him last week in his office.

'Contribution' Offered

Boggs reported the three men first offered him a "campaign contribution," the amount to be specified by him.

Then, he said, when he asked them if they wanted him to go to Maine, they replied that he was driving a "hard bargain" and urged him not to go.

Boggs said he replied, "This is no bargain," and walked out.

The penalty for attempting to bribe a congressman is up to 15 years in prison and-or a fine up to $200,000.

Car, Train Hit; Kansan, 79, Dies

Culbertson (AP) — A 79-year-old Atwood, Kan., man was killed about two miles west of here Friday when the car he was driving collided with the engine of a Burlington freight train.

The victim, who was alone in his car, was identified by the State Patrol as Elmer Jones.

The Patrol said the engineer of the train was Melvin Unger of McCook.

Jones' death brings the 1968 Nebraska highway toll to 353, compared with 336 on Oct. 11, 1967.

Philippine Ferry Toll Feared 300

Manila (AP) — An inter-island ferry capsized and sank in shark-infested waters and some 300 passengers were feared dead, the Philippine News Service reported Saturday.

The news agency said its figure was based on survivors' reports. One person who was rescued from a raft told a radio station that hundreds apparently died.

The survivor, Ethylwaldo Angeles, 24, told the radio station that the launch was packed with merrymakers heading for an annual festival honoring the patron saint of Zamboanga City. Angeles said there was panic when the boat sprang a leak and water poured in.

U.N. Says Debts In Police Actions Won't Be Repaid

© New York Times Service

United Nations, N.Y. — Countries that are owed money by the United Nations for services rendered in peace-keeping operations in the Congo and in the Middle East have quietly been advised that there is practically no possibility that they will ever be paid.

Total debts outstanding, for manpower, supplies and air transport, amount to $25 million for the U.N. Emergency Force, which operated on the Sinai Peninsula, and $13 million for the U.N. operation in the Congo. The United States is owed nearly $4.5 million. The debts will remain on the books, the creditors have been told, despite no practical possibility of payment.

Johnson Honors Harry S. Truman

Independence, Mo. (AP) — President Johnson flew here Friday to honor former President Harry S. Truman, his services to the United Nations and his dreams which were translated into what Johnson called landmark laws.

Johnson told Truman that at "least 30 measures in education, health, housing and jobs were seeded in your time."

Then Johnson proclaimed Oct. 24 United Nations Day — the 23rd anniversary of the day the U.N. Charter became effective. And he signed a bill calling on all Americans to "give special recognition to the significant part which Harry S. Truman played in the creation of the United Nations."

LBJ Signs Farm Bill—Regretfully

Kansas City (AP) — President Johnson signed with regret Friday night a bill extending the present farm subsidy program for a year and accused Congress of playing politics at the expense of farmers.

He said in a statement that he regretted Congress failed to act favorably on recommendations he made in a special message last February and added:

"To be plain about it, the farmer has already suffered from this activity and from those who play politics with these farm problems this election year."

The bill was a compromise between Senate and House. In its final form the House rangled bitterly, finally junked a $20,000 limit on payments to individual farm operators and sent the measure to the White House Sept. 25. Friday night was the deadline for the President to sign or veto it.

The bill was stripped of all amendments in conference with the Senate, which has passed a four-year extension bill with no restrictions on the size of payments, just as in the existing law.

The latter is designed to control production of wheat, feed grains, cotton and wool through annual payments of more than $3 billion for land retirement. The basic farm program, enacted in 1965, does not expire until Dec. 31, 1969.

Research Council Set To Answer Questions On Tax

The Nebraska Tax Research Council reported Friday it has made an impartial survey on the income tax law in Nebraska and other states and stands ready to answer citizens' questions about the tax.

Executive Vice President Forrest Johnson said the council's office at 411 So. 13th St. in Lincoln will answer specific questions by either mail or telephone.

Voters will decide on a constitutional amendment forbidding the state from levying an income tax in the Nov. 5 election if the State Supreme Court affirms a Lancaster District Court ruling that an anti-tax petition drive was sufficient.

Lincoln Man Is Arraigned On Robbery

A 23-year-old Lincoln man was arraigned Friday in Lancaster County Court on a felony charge of robbery in connection with the Sept. 26 holdup of Watts's Liquor Store at 17th and Van Dorn.

Michael J. Kelly of 1735 So. 53rd requested preliminary hearing on three charges. Judge Ralph Slocum scheduled them for Nov. 1.

Kelly, who was also charged with forging an endosement and failing to return a leased motor vehicle, was picked up on a warrant after information led officers to believe that the individual who failed to return a leased car to Novo Leasing Downtown Inc. was the same person who held up the liquor store.

Bond on the robbery charge was set at $2,500, while bond on the forged endorsement was set at $1,500 and on the failure to return a leased motor vehicle charge, at $1,000.

Jack Nowak Chosen Head Of Assessors

By GERRY SWITZER
Star Staff Writer

Omaha — Greeley County Assessor Jack L. Nowak was elected president of the Nebraska County Assessors Association at the group's 65th annual meeting which closed in Omaha Friday.

Other newly-elected officers are: Robert W. Downer, Banner County, first vice president and Allan Parker of Harlan County, second vice president. Mrs. Joy K. Nixon, Dakota County assessor, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Roscoe Story of Adams County was named chairman of the Legislative Committee which will act as a liaison between the association and the Nebraska County Officials Association in supporting or rejecting proposed legislation during the 1969 Legislative year.

Other members named to the committee include: Bob Downer, Banner County, Carroll Weedlunn, Kearney County; Lloyd Jones, Gage County; Story, Adams County, and H. K. Hancock, Thurston County.

The group made no recommendations in connection with several legislative proposals presented Thursday by State Sen. Terry Carpenter, but gave the legislative committee authority to examine all proposed bills affecting assessment and taxation. After getting opinions from the various districts represented by committee members, the committee is then to take recommendations to the Nebraska County Officials Association.

The assessors voted to change guidelines for assessment of leased or rented equipment. The change in effect will boost the actual value of such equipment by 40%.

Under the new rules, the assessors will disallow a present reduction in the value of equipment. Leased equipment will be valued at retail sale cost, less depreciation.

The tragedy occurred on the Boyd Clarke farm, located near Brock, when Olin made a visit to the farm, it was reported.

Gains Top Losses In Stock Market

New York (AP) —Advances topped declines in the stock market Friday although softness in some blue chips dampened the major market indicators. Trading slowed.

Volumes dipped to 12.65 million shares from 17 million during the sharp Thursday retreat.

Most of the session was devoted to a mild and reluctant downturn. As the morning wore on it became apparent that selective strength was trying to reverse the trend. Many heavily traded issues put on a sparkling performance. This almost succeeded in reversing the trend.

By the close, the Dow Jones industrial average had canceled most of a two-point loss and showed a trivial decline of only .19 at 949.59.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks took a small loss of .4 at 353.4, with industrials down 1.2, rails unchanged, and utilities off .1.

Thus a week of consolidation ended following the strong three-week rally of September.

Of 1,590 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 695 rose and 670 fell. New highs for the year totaled 83 and new lows 16.

The return to a more optimistic mood was more apparent in the list of 15 most-active stocks. Ten of these rose and five fell.

Lionel was the most-active stock, up 1¼ at 10¼ on 222,800 shares. The return of this speculative issue to the list of favorites and making such a large percentage gain drew comment from Lionel's president that he knew of no reason for the stock's activity except "the fact the company shows every evidence of making money on a continuing basis."

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 5.73 million shares compared with 6.78 million Friday.

Fed Steers Are Steady To Strong

Omaha (AP) — Buying interests tried to stake out a lower base for price operations at the Omaha market this week. Dressed beef trade was an uncertain affair most of the week, too.

Fed steers and heifers sold steady to strong for the week. Steer top was $28.35, heifer top $26.40.

A long expected break in the butcher market occured during the week. A minor price recovery late did not offset substantial midweek declines.

Barrows and gilts finished 50 cents to $1 lower with the week's butcher top a $19.25, paid on opening rounds. Sows were 25 to 50 cents lower with the week's high at $18.25, also paid early in the week.

Slaughter lamb prices strengthened and finished the week steady to 25 cents higher. Both wooled and shorn lambs bulked at $25.75-$26.75 with the latter the week's top on both. Slaughter ewes were steady at $6-$6.75.

All Soybeans, Grain Contracts Rise In Price

Chicago (AP) — All soybeans and grain futures contracts advanced in price on the Chicago Board of Trade this past week.

A number of factors influenced the general movement of prices, but uppermost was the possibility that, in an effort to reduce the huge surpluses next year of soybeans and grains, there may be a heavy cut in acreage used to grow these commodities.

The U.S. Department, at week's end, announced its estimate as of Oct. 1 of 1968 production of wheat, corn and other feed grains and soybeans. There was a small variation from the Sept. 1 estimate but all these crops will be at record or near-record yields when the harvest has been completed.

When trade had closed on Friday, wheat was 3 to 3⅜ cents a bushel higher for the week, December 1.24⅞; corn was 1⅞ to 2⅝ higher, December 1.03⅞; oats were ¾ to 1½ higher, December 64 cents; rye was ¼ to ⅞ higher, December 1.14⅛; and soybeans were 1⅛ to 4 cents higher, November 2.49⅞.

Recommendations Told For NU Management

By Associated Press

The Little Hoover Commission Friday made 25 recommendations dealing mainly with how the University of Nebraska can improve its business operations.

A professional business management consultant should be hired to make an in-depth analysis of the university's operations at all locations, the commission said.

"There seems to be some organizational shortcomings in regard to business matters, the report said.

The commission noted, however, that business activities at such an institution are usually not afforded the same attention as academics.

Low Overhead

The school has significantly low overhead costs, ranking lowest among Big Eight schools in a computed percentage for research grants and contracts, the commission said.

"Compared with other institutions, the university has less than an adequate supporting staff in relation to operating departments," the report said.

The commission said emphasis on cost measurements in various areas including financial reporting and auxiliary enterprises is lacking.

Recommendations center on improving current practices in administration, maintenance, planning, data processing and the operation of the auxiliary enterprises.

The commission also said the university's College of Medicine should concentrate more on keeping its graduates in Nebraska due to the extreme shortage of physicians especially in smaller communities.

Normal Board

The commission also repeated a recommendation to abolish the State Normal Board and turn its governing duties over to the university's Board of Regents.

Normal Board members "traditionally have been far less concerned with the total state college system than with furthering the interests of colleges within their own geographic area," the commission said.

Present board members hail from Kearney, Wayne and Chadron where three of the four colleges are located and from Ogallala, Nebraska City (which is near Peru State College) and Genoa.

Commissioner of Education Floyd Miller of Lincoln also is a board member.

Gov. Norbert Tiemann's study commission said also that the Board of Educational Lands and Funds could realize an increased income of 10 to 20% in the sale of school lands by using professional auctioneers.

Board appraisers or county treasurers now handle the chore.

TRADE FOR A '69 SUNDAY

Do you realize that while your older car may be worth as much as $1000 or even more to us right now —

A new state automobile Inspection Law LB806 becomes effective January 1, 1969.

Each automobile registered in Nebraska must pass a state supervised motor vehicle inspection requiring approval of Horns — Mirrors — Windshield wipers — Glass — Tires — Wheels — Rims — Mufflers and exhaust system — Brakes — Steering — Suspension — Wheel alignment — Lamps and lighting — Body and sheet metal . . . That's a fact!

YOUR OLD CAR IS WORTH MORE TO US NOW THAN AFTER JANUARY 1

That's right we have dealers from the North and from the West who possibly won't be affected by such a law and are willing to pay you a premium for your old car.
